Your Eminence:

The parish of St. Gregory's Armenian Church in Binghamton, NY would like to extend an invitation to you to celebrate the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, November 24, 1991, in our community.

The Parish Council would also like for you to consider elevating our deacon, Mr. Hagop Injajigian, to Avak Tzargavark on that date. Hagop has served God and his church unselfishly since boyhood, and we feel that this token of recognition is a small reward the Armenian Church can bestow on him. As I mentioned to you during our recent telephone conversation, this year, 1991, celebrates the 60th anniversary of the consecration of our church in Binghamton, and we would be honored if you would join us to commemorate this milestone occasion.

Please acknowledge our invitation at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

Nishan Ketchoyian
Parish Council Chairman

Dear Mr. Ketchoyian:

Thank you for your invitation dated February 18, 1991 on the occasion of the celebration of the 60th anniversary of the consecration of the St. Gregory Armenian Church in Binghamton, New York.

I will be pleased to join the Binghamton parishioners on this important milestone occasion and celebrate the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, November 24, 1991.

Your remarks about the unselfish and long service of Hagop Injajigian to the Church, and the recommendation of the parish council to elevate him to "Avak Sargavak" will be considered.

May the Lord bless you all for your faith and service to His Church.

With prayers,

Bishop Khajag Barsamian
Primate
