Your Eminence:

It was a pleasure to have Your Excellency with us once again in December.

We are now well into the year 1981 which we brought in with a New Year Eve's party. The next important project for us will be the dedication ceremony for our tree commemorating the April 24 Day of Remembrance. I am in charge of this program.

During the luncheon at the Klanian home Your Excellency indicated that although it did not appear possible another visit could be made on that occasion, were we to set the date it might be arranged for another representative of the Church to attend.

We have tentatively set the date for Saturday afternoon, May 2, 1981. Before I can proceed with further arrangements such as inviting other persons, however, I would appreciate hearing very soon whether we can expect the presence of an Armenian Church representative.

If this is impossible we can, of course, proceed without.

Respectfully yours,

Jerry Chakerian
