

BENEFIT CONCERT

Philip DerMargosian
Baritone

May 19, 1985

Sponsored by the Armenian Church of the Holy Resurrection

They grow so quickly—
capture their youth...
in a portrait.

Call for an appointment today.
Tomorrow, they'll be a day older.

No force on earth can stop the march of time—
except the professional photographer's camera.
Your children are growing so quickly, isn't now the right time to capture the essence of their youth?

They'll be young in a handsome portrait—
even when you have grandchildren.

HONORARY CHAIRPERSONS

The committee is honored to have Juan and Ruth Nazarian as Honorary Chairpersons for today's concert. Both are renowned artists who recognized Philip's talent and have encouraged him in his career.

Mr. Nazarian, an accomplished pianist, is a graduate of the University of Madrid, Spain. He was the recipient of a 5 year scholarship to study in Paris and was the artist pupil of Philipp, Casadesu, Copeland, and Boulanger. Mr. Nazarian was a graduate and first prize winner of the Fontainebleau Conservatory, France. His concert tours have included France, England, Spain, Greece, Egypt and the Scandinavian countries. Teachings have been at the Ethel Walker School, Hartford Conservatory, Kingswood School, and Westminster School.

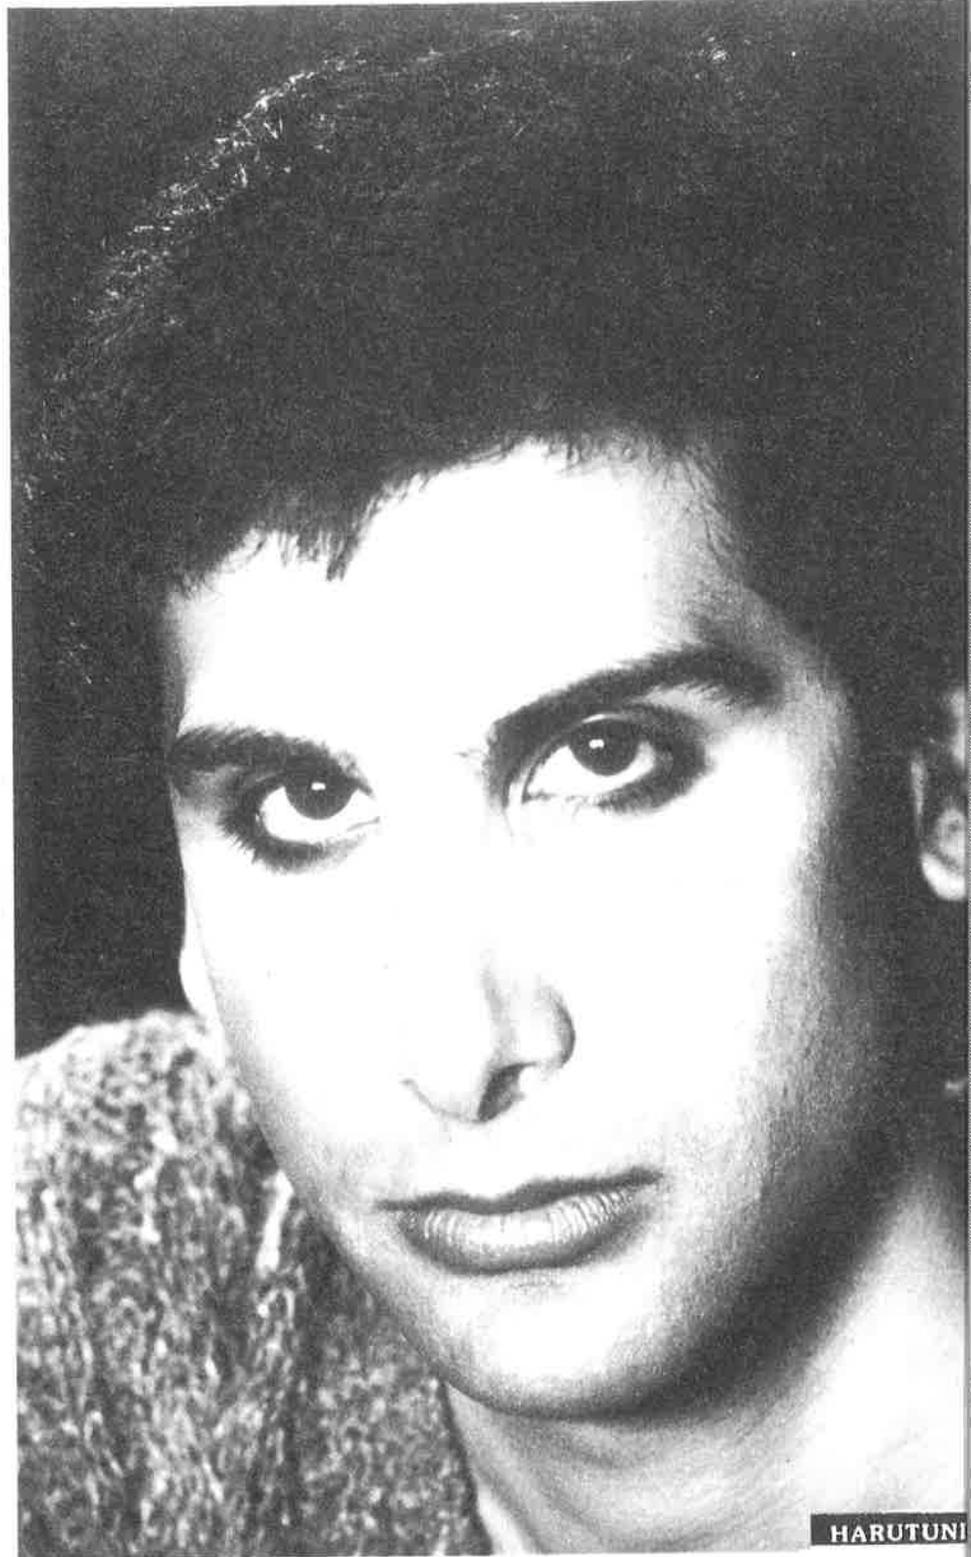

Mrs. Nazarian, noted pianist, violinist and composer, is a graduate and former professor at Smith College. She was an artist pupil of Carl Slesch of Germany and Andre De Ridaupierre of Paris. Her private teachings included France, Italy, Switzerland, and in the United States the Cleveland Institute of Music, Mary Burnham School of Northampton, Mass., Miss Porter's School and Westminster School.

HARUTUNI

Philip DerMargosian

Since his first concert appearance at the age of 18, Mr. DerMargosian has emerged as one of today's most promising young vocal artists. As a soloist with the St. Vartan Cathedral, he has become a highly visible part of the Armenian cultural community giving concerts at Holy Martyrs Church, St. Thomas Chur and Church of Our Savior. He has appeared as soloist with the Gomidas Choir as Mosi in "Anoush" in their 25th anniversary concert, and recently sang the solo voice in Hampartzoom Berberian's Vartananz Cantata. In New York City, he has appeared at the Light Opera of Manhattan and in "The Merry Widow" and several Gilbert and Sullivan Operettas. Mr. DerMargosian was one of the artists invited to perform at the Aspen Summer Music Festival in 1984, where he received much success in Mozarts "Marriage of Figaro" and Benjamin Brittin's "Paul Bunyan". He has, again, been invited to the Aspen Summer Music Festival for the 1985 season. Trained at the Juilliard School and California State University at Northridge, he is the winner of numerous awards and honors including the Armand Tokatyan prize in the Allied Arts Competition of Los Angeles and the Gianna D'Angelo singing competition. A native of Farmington, Connecticut Mr. DerMargosian resides in New York City.

Martin Yazdzik, Pianist

Mr. Yazdzik has conducted and coached in the major opera houses of the United States and Europe, most notably Brussels, Baton Rouge and Seattle. He currently works in New York City.
