

Armenian Church Youth Organization of America

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, Primate

8 December 82

Dear ACYOA member:

We write to you, as a present or immediate past chapter leader, to encourage your support and efforts regarding our newest project - ACYOA MAGMONEY.

As you know, the General Assembly welcomed the opportunity to raise funds for the National Treasury, whereby we may increase our communiques, add professional touches to our programs, and overall improve our operations on the national level. The MagMoney Project offers us a means to raise funds, without the usual "push" and "solicitation" necessary in outright requests for direct money. Anyone may support and contribute simply by receiving their favorite magazines via the ACYOA.

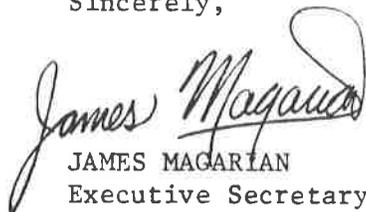

The ACYOA acts as a go between, and receives a commission for each subscription - new or renewal.

What we all must do is promote this unique way of "giving" to the Church and Armenian youth. Actually, when people contribute, it does not cost an extra penny. So there is really no reason why someone cannot support the ACYOA.

We ask that you, as a member of your chapter and a leader, fully promote this project and see to it that everyone in your chapter, as well as your parish, become involved in "spreading the word". It can only mean positive results.

Wishing you the many blessing of this season of the Holy Birth. We hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

JAMES MAGARIAN
