ARCHBISHOP TORKOM MANOOGIAN, PRIMATE

September 16, 1972

TO: BOARD OF TRUSTEES
DIOCESE OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH OF AMERICA

SUBJECT: ST. MARY ARMENIAN CHURCH
IRVINGTON, NEW JERSEY

In a letter dated September 9, 1972, the St. Mary Armenian Church of Irvington, New Jersey, has requested permission to sell the existing Church and church property located at 417 14th Avenue in Irvington, New Jersey, for the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000.00) in order to proceed with plans for the construction of a new church in West Orange, New Jersey.

At the Diocesan Council meeting of September 14, 1972, this proposal was approved by the Council, and we are now applying to you for your concurrence.

We ask that you please indicate below your approval or disapproval of this application and return your decision to us at your earliest convenience.

I approve the plan for the sale of St. Mary Church and property for the sum of $55,000.00

I disapprove of the plan for the sale of St. Mary Church and property for the sum of $55,000.00

The Most Reverend Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate
Diocese of the Armenian Church of America
630 Second Avenue
New York, New York 10016

Most Reverend Archbishop Manoogian:

This will acknowledge your letter of September 16, 1972, addressed to Mr. Alex Manoogian as a member of the Board of Trustees, asking his consent about the sale of St. Mary's Armenian Church in Irvington, New Jersey.

I would like to inform you that Mr. Manoogian is on a tour of Europe and he will be back on October 10. Your letter will be brought to his attention as soon as he returns to the office.

Respectfully yours,
