ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

WHAT IS THE ACYOA?

The Armenian Church Youth Organization of America (ACYOA) is the national youth program of the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America. The ACYOA has two divisions - Seniors and Juniors. The Seniors division is comprised of young adults, 18 and older, organized through parish-based chapters throughout the Diocese.

WHAT ARE THE OBJECTIVES?

1. To encourage its members to learn, practice, uphold and propagate the principles and teachings of Christian faith according to the doctrine, sacraments and canons of the Armenian Apostolic Church.
2. To support and work for the strengthening of the Armenian Church and to promote the study and appreciation of the Armenian culture and heritage.
3. To strengthen spiritual and social bonds and to contribute towards the development of a healthy community life among Armenians.
4. To enhance and strengthen among its members the spirit of human freedom, universal justice and brotherhood of men, and devotion to duty as good citizens, dedicated to the service of God and Country.

WHAT IS OUR PURPOSE AND ROLE IN THE DIOCESE?

Our purpose and role in the ACYOA, in the context of the Diocese of the Armenian Church, is of vital importance, as we are charged with preparing and equipping ourselves to participate in leadership capacities.

However, in order to do this, we must educate ourselves concerning the teachings of our Church and the history of her people. We must motivate and stimulate creative thinkings and illustrations of faith among our members by providing vehicles through which we may express ourselves and demonstrate our abilities, skills, interests, concerns, willingness to try and faith. These vehicles must enable us to build friendships and lasting relationships.

We must develop programs through which we participate, receive information, experience meaningful relationships, feel a sense of belonging, and be exposed to our Church and cultural heritage. These programs must be diverse and they must lead us in the direction of future participation and leadership within our parishes and Church at large.

THE EMBLEM

The Emblem of the ACYOA, adopted at its inception, is interpreted as follows:

The Cross marks the true character of the ACYOA. The radiations behind the Cross symbolize the truths of Christianity that shine forth through the centuries.

Under the horizontal bar of the Cross are:

(On the Right) the double peaks of Mount Ararat, representing the Armenian people and their destiny. Mount Ararat has been the silent witness of the victories and defeats of the Armenians through their existence as a people and a nation. Its representation here means that the members of the ACYOA make the pledge of standing for the ideals for which the Armenian nation has always stood.

(On The Left) The United States Eagle, with its wings widespread and a star above each wing, looks proudly into the distance and holds a batch of arrows. The Eagle represents the United States of America. Its presence on the Emblem symbolizes the loyalty of the members of the organization to the Constitution of the United States and its principles of democracy and freedom.

The Chain that encircles the Cross represents the solidarity among the members of the ACYOA in their service to God and to people. These symbols are designed on a shield which stands for the determination with which the objectives of the ACYOA are to be carried out. The shield also stands for defense against dangerous encroachments. It will be noted that the dominant feature on the Emblem is the Cross. This indicates the fact that Christ is our Lord, and that to Him we owe obedience above all.

THE STRUCTURE

The structure and procedures of the ACYOA follow a similar outline as that of the Diocese itself. The following is an outline of the administrative and operational aspects of the organization:

Primate

A celibate priest, usually a bishop or archbishop, the Primate is the hierarchical leader of Armenians within the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America. He is the President of the ACYOA on the National level and presides at the annual ACYOA General Assembly.

Executive Secretary

Appointed by the Primate, the Executive Secretary is responsible for the administrative and developmental aspects of the National Organization on the Diocesan level. The Executive Secretary assists the ACYOA Central Council in executing the decisions of the ACYOA General Assembly.

General Assembly

The General Assembly is presided over by the Primate and convened by the ACYOA Central Council. The Assembly is made up of representatives (delegates) from each chapter. It is the annual business meeting of the organization. The Assembly elects its own officers, the ACYOA Central Council, the Nominating and Auditing Committees, and other committees and officers as it deems necessary. All the decisions of the ACYOA General Assembly must be approved by the Primate and the Diocesan Council.

Central Council

The ACYOA Central Council is a 5-member body responsible for executing the decisions of the ACYOA General Assembly and maintaining the operations and programs of the National Organization. The Council is elected by the delegates of the General Assembly and must act in the best interests of the ACYOA and fulfill requirements and meet standards through coordinating, directing, supervising, and initiating ACYOA programs and activities. The Council elects its own officers and each member is assigned to represent a region of the Diocese as well as take on specific assignments in the operations of the ACYOA on the national level.

Chapters

The core of the ACYOA is the local chapter. Each chapter is comprised of young adults, ages 18 and older, and is organized under the guidelines and structure of the ACYOA and follows its Constitution. Five members are necessary to form a Chapter. Every Chapter is affiliated with a local parish, follows national standards and procedures, has meetings once or twice a month and should organize a variety of activities to interest the membership. Assisting in parish-sponsored events is also a part of the Chapter's schedule of activities and events. As a group, the Chapter attends and participates in regional and national events which are designed as weekend excursions.

PROGRAMS

The programs of the ACYOA are the most direct and meaningful vehicles we can use to provide for, educate, and attract new and current members to participate in the organization. They are the very components that give the ACYOA her true form and direction. Their promotion, and participation therein, will lead to greater success and a continual sense of purpose. We must strive to continue to develop and upgrade new and current programs, thus providing a strong equilibrium for all Armenian youth.

CULTURAL PROGRAMS

The ACYOA offers two cultural programs, the ACYOA Cultural Weekend and the Armenian Cultural Day. The ACYOA Cultural Weekend comprises all facets of the objectives of the ACYOA Constitution. Held annually over Presidents' Weekend, the program may include a comprehensive explanation and discussion of the Badarak (Divine Liturgy); a crash course on the Armenian language; segments on Armenian Church and cultural history; instruction in Armenian dance; and fellowship. The Armenian Cultural Day

. The programs are subsidized, in part, by the ACYOA Central Council and are open only to dues-paid members.

CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP PROGRAMS

The Christian Leadership Seminars and the Hye Christian Encounters are weekend programs which provide an opportunity for all Armenian young adults to learn the basics of leadership from those who lead and learn how to take the opportunities and face the obstacles and challenges that lie ahead of us as we serve our local communities in the capacities that we do. There are two seminars and two retreats each year. The programs are hosted by individual chapters and subsidized, in part, by the ACYOA Central Council. They are open only to dues-paid members.

ACYOA DAY

A local event, many chapters celebrate ACYOA Day on Palm Sunday with a banquet and program with guest speakers. The theme used can be to commemorate a specific event, to emphasize an aspect of the organization, or to celebrate an anniversary. Awards are sometimes presented to outstanding members of the chapter, parish and community at large. ACYOA Day is meant to bring together the local chapter and parish community and to emphasize the importance of the local chapter within the context of the parish. It is a day to celebrate the very existence of the organization through its very heart--the local chapter.

MARTYRS' DAY COMMEMORATION

Held on a local basis, this annual commemoration of the Armenian martyrs of 1915 varies from chapter to chapter. The focus is on the Genocide of the Armenians from a religious perspective with an accent on the future. A special program is also held annually at the Diocese.

ARCHBISHOP TORKOM MANOOGIAN INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Initiated by His Eminence, Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, this Tournament is hosted each year by selected chapters throughout the Diocese. It began in 1971 as a basketball tournament and has grown since then to include co-ed volleyball. The Tournament is usually held in mid-May and is highlighted with the awarding of trophies to the champions and other outstanding participants at an elaborate banquet/dance. (See also Archbishop Torkom Manoogian Invitational Tournament Rules and Regulations).

ARMENIAN STUDIES PROGRAM (ASP)

The Armenian Studies Program (ASP) consists of two educational tours to Armenia and have attracted hundreds of people. The only difference in the tours is the length of time - two weeks vs. one month. Participants are guests of the Catholicos and the Soviet Armenian government and are given extensive tours throughout the historic homeland. It is unquestionably a most fulfilling experience for any Armenian-American. Information and brochures are distributed in February or March. Open only to dues-paid members.

ANNIVERSARY BALLS

Held regionally, the Anniversary Balls mark the anniversary of the organization. They are usually highlighted with special presentations to alumni of the organization. Chapters wishing to host the Balls must present bids to the ACYOA Central Council. (See ACYOA Anniversary Ball Guidelines).

GENERAL ASSEMBLY & NATIONAL SPORTS WEEKEND

The General Assembly is where national programs are discussed and instituted, policy is set, changes are made to the Constitution, and a general direction is given to the ACYOA Central Council to carry out the decisions made. It is made up of representatives (delegates) from each chapter, and is convened prior to the National Sports Weekend. (See Organizational Overview and the ACYOA Constitution for further details).

Following the General Assembly, the National Sports Weekend is held over Labor Day Weekend. The Weekend features competition in over 30 athletic events in swimming, golf, track and field, tennis, badminton, basketball, volleyball, tavloo and chess. It is also highlighted with banquets, dances and seminars. The awards are presented at the Awards Banquet on Sunday night. The Weekend concludes with a picnic on Monday (Labor Day).

The General Assembly/National Sports Weekend is hosted by a chapter, selected after presenting a bid to the delegates of the prior year's Assembly.

REGIONAL CONFERENCES

Usually conducted by ACYOA Central Council members, chapters in each region come together to discuss regional programming as well as national events. They may decide to organize on a more structured basis. The main purpose is to stimulate interaction between ACYOA chapters in a region and provide an opportunity for the chapters to meet and discuss concerns and ideas.

AWARDS

The Chapter 'A' Award is given annually to the chapter that best fulfills the standards and requirements set forth by the ACYOA Central Council. Chapters are expected to meet deadlines, file proper reports and meet the needs of ACYOA members in their parishes with a well-rounded schedule of activities throughout the year. The Award is based on a point system, whereby the chapter accumulating the most points wins. Chapters accumulating a pre-determined number of points receive an achievement award. The criteria required and explanations thereto are as follows:

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| Delegation at General Assembly: | 20 Points |
| Each chapter must be represented by the chapter chairman or a delegate as outlined in the ACYOA Constitution. | |
| Representation at Regional Conference: | 10 Points |
| At least one representative from each chapter must attend any regional conference held in their respective region. | |
| Representation at Archbishop Torkom Manoogian Invitational Tournament: | 5 Points |
| At least one member from each chapter must attend the Tournament. It is not necessary to participate in the Tournament. A list of those who purchase package plans will be forwarded to the ACYOA Central Council. | |

Those who do not purchase package plans must provide the Council with a means of verification.

Team Representation at Archbishop Torkom Manoogian Invitational Tournament:

10 Points

A minimum of one team from each chapter must participate in basketball and/or volleyball. Participation is subject to the rules and regulations that govern the Tournament.

Representation at National Sports Weekend:

5 Points

A minimum of one member from each chapter must attend the National Sports Weekend. It is not necessary to participate in athletic events. The verification procedure for the Archbishop's Tournament applies here also.

Athletic Representation at National Sports Weekend:

10 Points

A minimum of two members from the chapter must participate in a minimum of one athletic event each. Participation is subject to the National Sports Weekend Rules and Regulations.

Press Release Sent to Hye Hokin:

10 Points/Per Issue

A minimum of one article/press release must be sent to the Coordinator of Hye Hokin for each issue published. Deadlines are available from the Coordinator.

Service to Parish/Armenian Community:

0-50 Points

Points will be awarded to each chapter based on the degree of service it bestows upon its respective Parish/Armenian community. Chapters will be judged at the end of the fiscal year. The number and quality of the programs as well as the manner in which the chapter communicates with the ACYOA Central Council will determine the number of points.

Service to Local Community:

0-20 Points

The same criteria that applies to the Parish/Armenian Community, applies here. Examples include "Toys for Tots," donating Armenian-related books to a local library, a general donation to a selected charity, participating in a blood drive or walk for hunger, etc.

ACYOA Day Recognized in Parish: 20 Points
Each chapter in conjunction with its local parish must designate one day a year as ACYOA Day (usually held on Palm Sunday).

Educational/Cultural Program: 10 Points
Each chapter must sponsor a minimum of one program that is educational and/or cultural. The program may be open to the chapter, the Armenian community, and/or the general public.

Spiritual Program: 20 Points
Each chapter must sponsor a minimum of one program that is spiritual. Examples include religious retreats, Bible studies, etc.

Submission of Monthly Fact Sheets:* 2 Points/Per Month
The fact sheets inform the ACYOA Central Council of local happenings. They must be postmarked 15 days following the reported month and should be sent regardless of whether activity takes place.

Submission of General Armenian Youth Listing:* 20 Points
Listing of the names and addresses of all Armenians living within the parish jurisdiction. Initially, a master list is established, names for which can be obtained from the parish's baptismal records, as well as from ACYOA membership lists. The list is forwarded to the ACYOA Central Council, which then integrates it with the National Mailing List.

Submission of Chapter Membership Listing:* 20 Points
Listing of names, addresses, and phone numbers of all members of chapter. The list must be submitted to the ACYOA Central Council by January 1st and updated periodically.

Executive Committee Listing w/Delegates:* 20 Points
Consisting of the names, addresses, phone numbers and positions of each member, this list must be forwarded to the ACYOA Central Council within thirty (30) days following elections.

Membership Dues/Membership Renewal Forms:*

20 Points

Memberships must be renewed and the designated form forwarded to the ACYOA Central Council by January 1st. Dues are $10.00 per person, half of which is forwarded to the Council. Chapters which have not renewed by January 1st will be assessed a penalty fee. New members must fill out an application form. All membership applications, dues, and renewal forms must be submitted by January 1st (beginning of fiscal year).

Sam Nersesian Award Nomination:*

20 Points

The Priest and/or Executive Body should nominate at least one individual from their chapter. Nominations are due by June 30th.

Annual Chapter Report:*

20 Points

A self-explanatory form requiring general information, the report must be filed with the ACYOA Central Council by June 30th (end of fiscal year).

Notes:

1. Those criteria marked with a (*) are the responsibility of the Executive Body.
2. A "member" is defined as a dues-paid member for the current fiscal year (January 1st to December 31st).
3. Each program is eligible for only one category. For example, a cultural program held on ACYOA Day will only be credited towards ACYOA Day.

As an incentive to this program, the Executive Body (maximum of 5 members) of the winning chapter will receive funding to visit a new, inactive, or reorganized chapter. This is known as the Chapter 'A' Assistance Program. The ACYOA Central Council will subsidize the transportation, lodging and meals for the group. The winning chapter is announced at the National Sports Weekend Awards Banquet.

Initiated as a result of the 1979 General Assembly, the Sam Nersesian Award is named after Sam Nersesian of the St. Louis ACYOA Chapter following his tragic death in May of 1979. The award is annually given to the ACYOA member who best exemplifies the character of a true Christian, demonstrating the virtues of love, humility, patience, and understanding. Nomination forms are sent out in April by the ACYOA Central Council. Nominations are made by the Priest and Executive Body of each chapter. The recipient is selected by the ACYOA Central Council and is presented the award at the National Sports Weekend Awards Banquet.

ARCHBISHOP'S ESSAY CONTEST

The ACYOA Central Council will distribute information and contest guidelines to all chapters and parishes in early fall of each year and publicize the contest for ACYOA members. The contest will have both Armenian and English language categories and the emphasis will be on writing style and literary ability, not on subject matter -- although subjects must be Armenian-oriented. A panel of judges (professors and those with literary background) will make the final selection of winners. A monetary award of $150 will be given to the winner in each category. Winners will be notified in July. The deadline for submission of all entries is June 1st. The Awards will be presented during the National Sports Weekend Awards Banquet.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Currently, the Sam Nersesian Scholarship is the only scholarship offered by the National organization. This Scholarship is awarded to applicants for the St. Nersess Summer Study program. Applications are sent to all chapters and parishes, as well as individuals who request them. Recipients are selected by the ACYOA Central Council. The amount of the Scholarship equals the amount of the tuition for the program.

A long-term goal of the National organization is to provide scholarships for college students.

MEMBERSHIP INCENTIVE PROGRAM

In an effort to promote dues-paying membership in the ACYOA, the following incentives are offered:

1. ACYOA dues-paid members for the current fiscal year shall be entitled to membership incentives. It is the chapter's responsibility to forward membership dues to the ACYOA Central Council for deposit in the ACYOA National Treasury. Membership cards will be processed as dues are received from the chapters. Persons eligible for membership must be high school graduates or 18 years of age. Minimum dues paid to the chapter is $10.00 - half of which is sent to the ACYOA Central Council.
2. On the ACYOA National and Regional levels, these incentives shall take the form of reduced rates at official ACYOA-sponsored programs and activities. Specifically, these incentives, in addition to privileges noted in the ACYOA Constitution, are as follows:

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian Invitational Tournament:
$10.00 Rebate off Regular Package Plan.

National Sports Weekend:
$10.00 Rebate off Regular Package Plan.

Anniversary Balls:
$10.00 Rebate off Regular Package Plan.

Regional Events:
$3.00 Reduction to Cost of Event.

Note: The above reduction figures are minimums. The ACYOA Central Council and host committees for these programs can increase these figures if additional incentives are deemed necessary.

Chapters are highly encouraged to participate in the program by offering similar reductions to ACYOA members at locally sponsored programs, activities, etc. as uniformity will enhance the meaning of the program.

3. Additionally, only dues-paid members are eligible to participate in the Armenian Studies Program (ASP); the Cultural Programs; and the Leadership Programs.

PUBLICATIONS

Through the years, the ACYOA has been involved with various publications. Its most noteworthy one, Sacraments and Prayers of the Armenian Church, contains devotional prayers and information on the Sacraments of the Church. This book is very helpful to those who wish to take part in as well as understand the Badarak (Divine Liturgy).

The newsletters of the ACYOA are also important publication tools in that they communicate information between the chapters and the ACYOA Central Council. The current newsletter is Hye Hokin, ("The Armenian Spirit") which is distributed on a quarterly basis. (See most recent issue in this packet).

AUDIO-VISUAL PROGRAMS

These programs include slides and tapes, videos, films and other presentation formats to be utilized by individual chapters, parishes, Armenian and non-Armenian organizations and community groups. As the various programs take place, they are videotaped. A long-term goal is to realize a library where these programs can be stored and then disseminated as a service to everyone.

PLEDGE

I SOLEMNLY PROMISE AND DECLARE UPON MY HONOR, THAT AS A MEMBER OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH YOUTH ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA, I SHALL, TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY, BE A FAITHFUL MEMBER OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH; SHALL BE A DEVOTED UPHOLDER OF THE ARMENIAN CULTURAL HERITAGE; SHALL BE A LOYAL CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; AND I SHALL DILIGENTLY ABIDE BY THE OBJECTS, POLICIES AND DECISIONS OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH YOUTH ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA. I SHALL NOT STRIVE FOR PERSONAL RECOGNITION AND PLEASURE, BUT WILL SERVE OUR CHURCH, OUR COMMUNITY AND OUR COUNTRY, FOR THE GREATER GLORY OF GOD.
