Dear Gentlemen:

After arrival from Europe, the new restoration center, Esterman Antiques, Inc., is opening now in the center of Manhattan on 1171 2nd Avenue, which is between 61 and 62nd street.

The restoration of pieces of antiquity is realized by very qualified specialists who have had experience in the best museums of Europe.

Also, we highly qualified in restoring the lost gilding and wiring of chandeliers, candelabras and wall sconces. Even the most damaged antique pieces with many intricate details can be restored.

Our specialists are available to answer your questions Monday through Saturday.

Thank you for your cooperation, happy to hear from you,

Yours very truly,

R. Esterman, the president.
