DIOCESE OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH OF AMERICA, 630 SECOND AVENUE, NEW YORK, N. Y. 10016 • 212 686-0710

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, Primate

July 14, 1972

The following is a translation of the attached letter #23620 dated July 14, 1972

We are in the process of making a number of reassignments of the pastors in our Diocese. In this connection, we had informed you earlier that we would communicate with you as soon as specific arrangements were made.

In accordance with these arrangements, we are appointing you the Pastor of St. Mary Armenian Church in Elberon, New Jersey.

You are to assume your new pastorate following the celebration of the Divine Liturgy in Holy Cross Armenian Church in Union City, on Sunday, September 10, 1972.

We are sure you will continue with the same devotion as the servant of our Lord and the spiritual shepherd of the Armenian Church, placing at the disposition of spiritual and cultural life of our people, the special talents God has granted you.

We recommend that your Parish Council make the appropriate announcements of these arrangements to the Union City community, and organize a public gathering on September 10, as a formal farewell in the name of the Union City faithful.

We pray that you never lack for the Lord's blessings, and that you remain always healthy in body and spirit.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian Primate

cc: Mr. John Hovsepian Parish Council Chairman

(addressed to The Reverend Vertanes Kalayjian)
