DIocese OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH OF AMERICA, 630 SECOND AVENUE, NEW YORK, N. Y. 10016 • 212 686-0710

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, Primate

July 13, 1973

The following is a translation of the attached
Letter #23614 dated July 13, 1972.

We are in the process of making a number of reassignments of the pastors in our Diocese. In this connection, we had informed you earlier that we would communicate with you as soon as specific arrangements were made.

In accordance with these arrangements, we are appointing you the Pastor of the Holy Resurrection Church Parish in South Milwaukee.

You are to assume your new pastorate following the celebration of the Divine Liturgy in the Cleveland Church on Sunday, September 10, 1972.

We are sure you will continue with the same devotion as the servant of our Lord and the spiritual shepherd of the Armenian Church, placing at the disposition of spiritual and cultural life of our people the special talents God has granted you.

We recommend that your Parish Council make appropriate announcements of these arrangements to the Cleveland community, and organize a public gathering on September 10, as a formal farewell in the name of the Cleveland faithful.

We pray that you never lack for the Lord's blessings, and that you remain always healthy in body and spirit.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate
