Ernst Fuchs für Dr. Lissauer.

On 5 January morning came news of the Japanese invasion and our first air raid. The Japanese had landed at Koror and were moving inland. We were ordered to abandon our posts and return to the ship.

Receive Capt. Mr. Thompson - President of Bank of New Bedford and Captain of whaling ship "Lure" in the Pacific Ocean - Please accept my regards to him. His wife Mrs. Thompson is a very good woman. She & I are well acquainted.
I hope you will have a good time in Boston. We will be happy to see you again. Give my regards to your friends & tell them we are all well.

First to my wife - P's message to you to make her know her suggestion. Her son suggests a P's message to you & yourself with a few:

The Society of Friends are known to us who are gathered in the quiet of their houses and by their meetings. They meet: first persons in the quietness of their houses; and secondly, being gathered in the quietness of their meeting-houses. In the quietness of their houses they meet: first in their quiet houses, quietly, and in the quietness of their houses, quietly among friends.

Wayside, 2 miles west of town, on the north side of the road leading to the mine. The road is paved with stones.

Dear Dr. Brewster, I have just received your kindly note and am very glad to receive your kind offer of help. I am sending you a copy of my paper on "The Influence of the Sun on the Migratory Birds of the Northern Hemisphere" which will be published in the "Proceedings of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences" in the near future. I hope you will find it of interest. I am sending you also a copy of my paper on "The
Migratory Birds of the
will be published in the
"Proceedings of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences" in
of interest.
