Dear Dr. Rejebian:

I received your letter of March 3 and was delighted to hear of the impending marriage of your daughter Vivian.

As a rule, all Armenian sacraments must take place in an Armenian Church. Exceptions are made by request and for appropriate reasons. Considering your need to accommodate a large number of people and the fact that Srpazan Vatche is officiating, there would be no problem in the wedding being held in Christ Episcopal Church.

God bless Robert and Vivian as they prepare for a life together and may He gift them and all of you with health, happiness, and all the fruits of faith.

With prayers,

Bishop Khajag Barsamian
Primate

Dear Serpazan Khajag,

Our daughter Vivian Angèle plans to be married to Robert Hagopian George, Jr. on Saturday, August 29, 1992 at 3:30 PM. Archbishop Vatche Hovsepian will be the officiant. Both Vivian and Bob know Serpazan Vatche and he is an old friend as well; since Marion and I were married by him 35 years ago.

Since our St. Gregory Armenian Church is not large enough to accomodate the number of people that we expect to attend the wedding ceremony, Marion and I request permission to have Vivian's wedding at Christ Episcopal Church in Binghamton. Our St. Gregory Armenian Church has had a long standing warm relationship with the Episcopal Parishes in Binghamton. When we celebrated our 60th Anniversary recently, the Vestry of Christ Church sent greetings during the anniversary celebration.

The Episcopal Bishop of Central New York, the Right Reverend David B. Joslin has stated that "he is happy to do anything he can to assist the Armenian Church and to improve relations with it."

Warmest regards to you from all of us.

Respectfully,

Dr. George P. Rejebian
