FUNCTIONS, ACTIVITIES & COMMENTS

Sunday School classes are held every Sun. morning from Sept. - June for children of our parish from the ages 4 - 17., in our church auditorium. This year, our staff consists of 6 dedicated teachers, one of which is an intern teacher, Paula Ohanian who will be graduating next June with our Senior Class. The teachers are Mary Abrahamian, Cheryl Hoosigian Grasso, Darlene Chiloyan, Sharon Vartanian and Roxie Maljanian. We also appreciate having 9 substitutes who are ready to serve when asked. Beginning in Sept., we were very pleased that the new curriculum from our Diocese was available and thus far we are quite satisfied with it. The new curriculum was developed to project the Armenian character of the Christian faith through its liturgy, history, art, music etc. in our bi cultural environment. We as the teachers hope to accomplish this, with the cooperation of the parents.

Our appreciation also to a group of ladies who are in charge of our social activities. They are: Henrietta Kallajian, Yakouhi Erikian, Margaret Omartian, Rose Azarigian, Ruth Swisher, Sonia Ohanian and Angel Yirigian who is our Loovs Reporter.

Several people continue to give generously to our Sunday School with monetary and other donations. Our thanks to Alyce Avedisian, Harry Azarigian, M/M Monty Bagdigian, M/M Peter Bagdigian Sr. M/M Peter Bagdigian, Jr. M/M Leon Hovanesian, M/M Berj Kallajian, Mrs. Violet Galazan, Mr.s Elizabeth Chaglasian, Mr.s Alice Omartian, Miss Sarah Yagoobian, Mr. Paul Karekinian, Mr. Eddie Egazarian and the Women's Guild.

- Sept. 20 - Opening Day of Sunday School - gave calendar for year to each student, New curriculum material distributed, with a display table for all the parishioners, especially the parents to browse through and question. Monthly bulletins - for teachers from the Diocese once again published. Free filmstrips also are available for use from the Diocese, which we use for assemblies or classroom.
