Though the ACYO A Juniors lost many members in the last few years they still enjoyed themselves this year as a small group. They sponsored the annual Easter egg extravaganza, helped Fr. Michael with the Lenten readings, played hostess ~~ed~~ at the Choir Assembly and aided various church organizations when they were called upon for help.

They did not meet on a monthly basis but did get together periodically either at church or at the home → of Sharon Vartanian for dinner to either plan church affairs or fun activities like going out for pizza and movies or Riverside Park.

In 1989 the ACYOA Juniors are going to see some exciting changes. The most important is the changing of advisors. Sharon Vartanian is stepping down and Lisa Yirigian is taking over. It will be a good year to join the group. #

Any child over the age of 12 is urged to join the fun~~ing~~ loving Armenian organization. It is not only an excellent way to learn our heritage through church endeavors but a great way to meet Armenian children of New England by attending central council social and religious activities. We urge all parents to talk to their young adults about this organization.
