

ANNUAL REPORT SAINT JAMES CHURCH WOMEN'S GUILD 1982

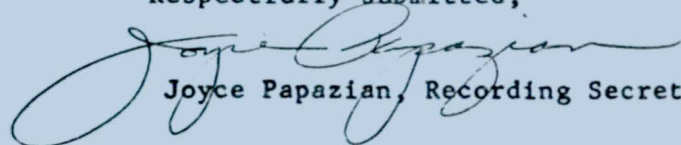

The Women's Guild of Saint James Armenian Church has a paid membership of twenty five women. The officers of the organization for 1982 were: Grace Bozian and Anahid Birnbaum, Co-Chairpersons, Joyce Papazian, Recording Secretary, Mary Azarian, Treasurer, Mary Arslanian, Corresponding Secretary, Alyce Vakassian, Assistant Treasurer, Lucy Tepikian, Refreshments, Justine Ekizian, Publicity, Deanna Stepanian, Programs, and Ethel Dorian and Ruth Sanossian, Advisors.

The Women's Guild was proud to sponsor the first Art Exhibit of Armenian Artists in the Westchester area, a Bakeless Cake Sale, and Lenten Supper. In addition, the membership prepared and sold food at our Church Picnic and was responsible for the culinary selections and organization of our Church Bazaar. The Guild was happy to sponsor an outdoor luncheon on the patio to which all church members and friends were invited. The Women's Guild has continued to sponsor the sale of Armenian books, records, and gift items as a service to our Armenian community. Members supported projects and events sponsored by our sister churches and the Diocese.

Profits from our projects were again presented to the Church for the purchase of a refrigerator and other equipment for the kitchen.

The members and officers of the Women's Guild wish to thank Der Hayr for his assistance and guidance throughout the year. Special thanks to the chairpersons of our 1982 projects for their outstanding creativity, efficiency, and willingness to assume responsibility for the benefit of Saint James Church and its community.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce Papazian, Recording Secretary
