THE ST. THOMAS ARMENIAN CHURCH CHOIR REPORT

The St. Thomas Church Choir can be counted on as loyal and steadfast in its service to the weekly Holy Badarak. The numbers have increased weekly, owing to some young people just graduated from Sunday School. We average about 9 to 12 members each Sunday.

Mr. Krikor Anoushian continues as Avak Sargavak holding Matins Services most Sundays preceeding Badarak. This is a church loving man to be noted for his devotion. Our thanks!

Messrs. Armen Basmajian and Hovsep Nokhudian are two more diligent altar servers who should be cited for faithfulness to their church. Censer John Nalool is quite adept at his chores, and he is fast becoming a valuable asset to our church.

Susan Shamamian, our organist, continues as the faithful performer she has been. We are all proud of her virtually perfect attendance. Our grateful thanks to a fine young lady.

Singing at the Emerson Home has become a pleasant habit,- during Lent and the Christmas Season.

St. Thomas can be proud of the noble service of its altar servers and choir members who make every effort to serve its beloved church. Our thanks to the Parish Council and the congregation for their praise and support.
