SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT,

JANUARY 25, 1981

The Sunday School of the Holy Ascension Armenian Church of Trumbull, Ct. has at the present time, an enrollment of 27 students, and seven dedicated teachers. The curriculum used is the one suggested by the CRE. The students ages range from four years of age to sixteen years of age.

The sixteen year olds are presently preparing themselves for graduation in May, 1981 and hopefully the second graduating class in the history of this parish will take place at that time.

The Sunday School has sponsored several affairs this past year: Namely,

- The annual Christmas party and program
- The annual bake sale which takes place on Palm Sunday
- Closing exercises in June
- The outing and field trip in the Summer, (July)
- Theatre trip to Wallingford, Oakdale and lunch.
- The annual Halloween party

In closing, may I offer my sincere thanks to the dedicated people who serve in the capacity of Sunday School teachers and willingly offer themselves to the educating of our children in Christian education. May I also thank Agnes and Peter Kapusuzian for constantly looking after the welfare and comfort of our children, Peter, for making necessary repairs or painting or varnishing various equipment, and Agnes, along with Peter for keeping our Sunday School rooms immaculately clean.

My thanks also to the Parish Council who has always made it be known that the Sunday School can depend on them for any kind of support, be it physical, moral or financial.

And lastly, to Der Levon, for guiding us with his good advice and wisdom whenever we have needed it.

At this time, on behalf of the Sunday School, I present this check in the sum of $ 500.00.

Respectfully submitted,

Theresa Harabedian
