Dear Srpasan Hayr:

I am writing in regard to a wedding that will take place in Richmond on September 11th, 1993 for Judy Boyajian.

I have spoken to Judy about her marriage since her fiancée is of Jewish faith. I am getting the feeling that he does not wish to be baptized and confirmed in the Armenian Church, however I may be mistaken. I also feel that his decision to become baptized would only be for marriage purposes.

In the past, according to our records here at St. James, I have noticed that Der Arsen has allowed non-Armenians to serve as Godfathers for baptisms and weddings. I do hope this will not happen again since Der Arsen is a close friend of the Boyajians and he may overlook this matter.

With prayers,

V. Rev. Fr. Oshagan Gulgulian
Former Pastor
