A Proposal I

Whereas:

At the request of a Special Parish Assembly held on 24 September, 1995, the Parish Council was instructed to intensify the planning and gathering of data regarding the Sanctuary Renovation Project to allow deliberating more meaningful decisions.

Therefore:

In fulfillment of these Special Parish Assembly requirements, a booklet was published and mailed to the Parish to inform them of the subsequent Master Plan that includes designs and a preliminary cost estimate for the various renovation components;

Thus, the Parish Council in consultation with both the Renovation Committee and the Finance Committee makes the following proposal:

It is moved that:

a) The Parish Council is hereby authorized to accomplish the Sanctuary Renovations in three phases at a cost not to exceed $550,000 with an 8% allowance permitted for unplanned costs; moreover, the Parish Council agrees not to enter into any contract until it has the required funds on hand.

b) The first phase has an urgent nature considering the current deteriorating condition of the front steps, these steps will be replaced in accordance with the Master Plan. In addition an elevator access will be included for the handicapped. The time period will be 1996-97 at an estimated maximum cost of $81,000.

c) The second phase shall include refurbishing the deteriorating front facade and addition of a traditional style dome above the vestibule as well as inclusion of a loft that may be used either for the choir or approximately 20 to 40 additional parish members. The time period will be 1997-99 at an estimated maximum cost of $316,000.

d) The third and final phase shall be the alteration of the sanctuary interior and will include altars, windows and a baptismal font. Estimated time period will be from 1999-2001 hopefully in time to celebrate the 1700th Anniversary of Armenia accepting Christianity. Estimated maximum costs are $153,000.

It is our considered opinion that it will cost the church less if we expeditiously move to take advantage of current costs for materials and mortgages involved in these activities.

The Parish Council

A Proposal

II

Whereas:

There are problems with managing the Parish Council operating budget due to competing effects from the funding cycles of income and expenses as well as a requirement to set aside restricted funds that need to be separated from the operating funds.

In fulfillment of previous Parish Assembly requests regarding the operating budget, many discussions were held during Parish Council meetings on how to find means for raising funds for the operating budget.

Therefore:

The Parish Council in consultation with the Finance Committee makes the following proposal:

It is moved that:

The dues of Parish members shall be increased from $100 to $125 per annum to help defray such cycles and add stability to the Council's operating budget.

The Parish Council

Diocesan Delegate's Report

The 93rd annual Diocesan Assembly was held on May 3-5, 1995 at the Sheraton Tara Hotel in Nashua, New Hampshire. Sts. Vartanantz Armenian Church of Chelmsford, MA was the host parish for the Assembly which opened on Thursday, May 3 with 107 delegates registered out of a potential total of 194. By Saturday morning, the delegate count was 141. Representing St. Mary's were Rev. Fr. Vertanes Kalayjian; our two Diocesan delegates, Dean Shahinian and Edward Onanian; and our parish council chairman, Paul Murad.

Arthur Mardigian and Dan Dorian were elected Assembly chairman and vice-chairman, respectively. The secretaries were Anna Marie Norehead (English) and Rev. Fr. Garen Gdanian (Armenian).

Except for about three hours devoted to panel sessions on Friday, the Assembly conducted its business in plenary sessions. The actions taken included the following:

Messages

The delegates had the opportunity to see and hear the Veghapar twice by video. During the opening session, we viewed a tape of the message from His Holiness, which represented a departure from the past practice of having it read by one of our clergy. (We may be ready for the 21st century after all.) During the Saturday morning session, the Assembly heard a moving message from Dr. Joan Brown Campbell, the General Secretary of the National Council of the Churches of Christ (NCC), who had visited Etchmiadzin in April as part of a delegation from the NCC. Dr. Campbell's presentation was preceded by a video of their audience with His Holiness.

Proposals

As they had in 1986, the delegates endorsed the ordination of women to the diaconate by approving the following resolution: "Be it resolved that this Diocesan Assembly respectfully petition His Eminence Archbishop Khajag Barsamian, Primate of the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America, in the discretionary exercise of his hierarchical authority, to ordain qualified women to the Diaconate." Following the Assembly's action, the Primate stated that he would present this issue on behalf of the Assembly at the next Conference of Bishops.

Approved also were a resolution requesting the Primate "to formulate a policy statement regarding the church's position on prayer in public schools," and a proposal submitted by the Clergy Stipend Committee that "the longevity increment of the Diocesan Stipend Guidelines be adjusted by 50 percent of the CPI change instead of the (present) 100 percent."

Under new business, the delegates approved a motion by Dean Shahinian calling upon the Diocese to prepare and distribute to the parishes within the next six months a written compilation of the terms and conditions of the restricted funds administered by the Diocese." (As of mid-February, the report requested had yet to be distributed.)

By Laws

The delegates approved for the first time an amendment to Article 56 denying representation rights at the Assembly to parishes delinquent in their assessments for the two previous years, and an amendment to Article 61 extending the term of Diocesan Auditing Committee members to three years. These changes will be presented to the 94th Assembly for final approval.

Elections

Five positions (three lay, two clergy) were filled on the Diocesan Council. As a result of the relatively large number of candidates and the by law requirement of a majority vote for election, the process required six ballots. Those elected to the lay positions were Haig Dadourian*, Vincent Gurahian*, and Dr. Dennis Papazian; the clergymen elected were Rev. Fr. Yeprem Kelegian and Very Rev. Fr. Haigazoun Melkonian. (Asterisks indicate incumbents.)

In another election, Dan Dorian was elected to a 10-year term on the Diocesan Board of Trustees.

Financial

A Diocesan budget of $3,552,575 was approved for 1995, and preliminary approval was given to a 1996 budget of $3,486,000. Parish assessments were unchanged from the 1994 level of $665,000, but the amounts payable from individual parishes could be expected to change based on their experience in 1994.

Unity Committee Report

Zarvin Kasparian, chairman of the Diocesan Unity Committee, reported that a draft of proposed by laws for a unified Diocese was completed on October 1, 1994, and a schedule was set at that time for regional meetings in November and December. Soon thereafter, however, Mr. Kasparian was advised that the Prelacy Executive Council had decided to suspend joint Diocesan/Prelacy Unity Committee meetings and the scheduled regional meetings until an understanding was reached on the issues of cooperative efforts in the "areas of Divine Liturgy and sacramental rites", and the "status of the Canadian Prelacy parishes."

Although an exchange of letters had since occurred, Mr. Kasparian reported that "as of the present moment, unity talks are at a standstill." The Diocesan Unity Committee received a vote of confidence from the delegates, and will continue its efforts "to realize the unification of our churches within the parameters of the 1982 Guidelines."

Panel Sessions

These sessions covered the following topics:

Religious Vocations/Education/Worship
Armenian Heritage/Research/Education
Total Youth Ministry
Christian Mission and Outreach at Home and Abroad
Diocesan Administration and Structure
Stewardship and Development

Diocesan staff were present at each of these sessions to provide background and to field questions.

The panels presented their reports at the final business session. Unfortunately, due to time constraints, the delegates did not have the opportunity to engage in further discussion of these subjects.

Assembly Sites

The delegates approved bids from three parishes for the Diocesan Assemblies of 2000, 2001, and 2002. Sites for the 1996-99 Assemblies had been approved in prior years. The hosts through 2002 are as follows: Sts. Sahag-Mesrob, Wynnewood, PA (1996); St. Gregory of Narek, Cleveland (1997); St. Vartan Cathedral (1998); St. Peter, Watervliet, NY (1999); Holy Trinity, Cheltenham, PA (2000); St. James, Watertown (2001); and St. Mark, Springfield, MA (2002).

Awards

During the Assembly banquet, the Diocese honored George Papalian of the Holy Martyrs Armenian Church (Bayside) as the Armenian Church Member of the Year, and Rep. Joseph P. Kennedy II, (D-MA) as the Friend of the Armenians.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward Onanian

NATIONAL ECCLESIASTICAL ASSEMBLY TO ELECT THE CATHOLICOS

In 1995, the vacancy in the office of the Catholicos required the Armenian Church convened the National Ecclesiastical Assembly ("NEA"). The NEA consists of delegates from all of the Dioceses in the world and all of the bishops who meet to elect a Catholicos. Each Diocese of the Armenian Church throughout the world was authorized by the Supreme Spiritual Council in Etchmiadzin to elect one delegate for each 25,000 persons living in the geographic jurisdiction of the Diocese who had been baptized in the Armenian Church. Since most jurisdictions have not compiled objective data, each Diocese estimated the number and submitted it to the Supreme Council for approval. The Eastern Diocese declared that 600,000 baptized Armenians lived in its jurisdiction and, therefore, it was entitled to be represented by 24 delegates.

The Diocesan Assembly of the Armenian Church of America held a Special Meeting in New York City on January 14 to elect Delegates from our Diocese for the National Ecclesiastical Assembly ("NEA"). Over 100 individuals were nominated. The Diocesan Delegates elected 24 NEA Delegates at large and 12 alternates. The NEA Delegates elected included Dean Shahinian, Esq. of St. Mary's. The NEA alternates included Rev. Vertanes Kalayjian and Mrs. Rita Balian of St. Mary's.

On March 30, 1995, our Diocese's NEA Delegates traveled to Armenia (at their own expense) to meet with the rest of the 400 NEA Delegates from other countries in Holy Etchmiadzin for a week of activities. On Sunday, April 2, the delegates attended Divine Liturgy at the Etchmiadzin Cathedral and informally met other delegates. The American delegates were invited by Ambassador Harry Gilmore to a reception at the Embassy of the United States. Ambassador Gilmore advised people to send money instead of sending goods and to keep Armenia in the mind of American politicians. In the evening, delegates attended a choral concert. On April 3, all delegates met in the Cathedral of Holy Etchmiadzin to participate in the Divine Liturgy, followed by a meeting in the Velharan for election of officers, adoption of election procedures and hearing President Levon Ter Petrossian, who encouraged delegates to promote Church unity through the Catholicos election. In the evening, delegates attended a performance at the Spendiarian Opera House. On April 4, delegates met in the Velharan to hear Patriarch Torkom Manoogian, Locum Tenens, report on the state of Holy Etchmiadzin. In the afternoon, delegates met in the Cathedral for the first vote. All 45 bishops were eligible to be named on the ballots, but only eight consented to be nominated. The three clergymen who received the most votes -- Archbishop Karekin Nersissian (Primate of Yerevan), Catholicos Karekin II (Catholicos of Cilicia), and Bishop Barkev Mardirossian (Primate of Karabakh), in this order -- were on the placed on the next ballot. After a break for informal discussions, delegates voted on the second ballot on which no candidate received a majority of votes: Catholicos Karekin II (186 votes), Archbishop Karekin (149 votes) and Bishop Barkev (61 votes). The Chairman dropped the name of the candidate receiving the least votes, Archbishop Karekin withdrew his candidacy, and the Chairman declared Catholicos Karekin as the new Catholicos.

On April 5, the new Catholicos spoke and the NEA conducted new business. Mr. Shahinian moved to put on the agenda of the next NEA meeting matters to restore early traditions of the Armenian Church: (1) that married clergy be eligible to be elected as a Diocesan Primate, (2) that married clergy be eligible to be consecrated as bishops, (3) that unmarried men be ordained without taking a vow of celibacy, so they can be married, and (4) the women be eligible for ordination as deaconesses. The proposal met with applause from the Delegates. The Catholicos said the NEA would reconvene in two years. On April 6, our Diocese's NEA delegates met privately with the new Catholicos. On April 8, the delegates attended a ceremony at Sardarabad and a reception at the American University of Armenia. On April 9, delegates attended the Divine Liturgy at Holy Etchmiadzin, where the Catholicos was dedicated, and were guests at a gala reception in Yerevan hosted by President Ter Petrossian.
