Dear Mrs. Gorgodian:

We have learned with sadness from your daughter Virginia of the passing of your beloved husband recently, and write to tell you that we share your sense of loss. Please do not feel alone; all of us are one family in Christ, and in the Armenian Church the welfare of each is a concern to all.

You have given our people much by raising a fine Armenian-American family, and we pray God will reward you richly for a life well spent, through His blessings of health, longlife, joy and peace.

With prayers,

Fr. Khajag Barsamian
Canon Sacrist
