Dear Mr. Ovanessof:

The old rare Armenian books, of religious and other subjects, which were presented to our Diocesan library are quite interesting and valuable for us, and we are grateful for your efforts in securing them as gifts for our Diocese.

We feel that it would be most appropriate and helpful if you could make a personal visit, so that we may consult fully on how best these books may serve our Church and people.

It is our hope that you may be able to arrange such a visit and spend some weeks here for this purpose.

We pray that God may grace you with His blessings always.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate
