Dear Mr. Barsamian:

A thousand apologies. Your remittance was received in time, a receipt sent to you and the donation recorded on your card.

The mistake is mine and I have no excuse for that. I didn't take your name off my pending list.

This letter is not only to put a wrong right, but to thank you for being so nice about it, for taking time to write a letter of explanation. We certainly appreciate it.

May you and your family have a veryBright and Happy and Prosperous Holiday Season.

Sincerely,
