Dear Dr. Sutherland:

We were very happy to receive, through Mr. Hrach Kazarian, your generous offer of 500 copies of your book, "The Adventures of an Armenian Boy." I have been reading ~~with~~ considerable interest the copy Mr. Kazarian was kind enough to leave here, and feel that many others of our people would find comparable interest in it.

We would be most appreciative of such a donation. Per your request, it would be our intention to sell copies for $8.00 each, for the benefit of the Diocese. We would also make gifts of a number of copies for special purposes.

Thank you for the generosity which prompted this gift, and the spirit which impelled you to make your story available to others.

Prayerfully yours,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
Primate
