Dear sir:

Pursuant to your letter of August 9th, on the 19th of August, 1968, I shipped to you 31 cartons of my books, five hundred copies, by the Railway Express Agency.
However, to this date I have not heard from you informing me of the receipt of the books. Would you be kind enough to drop me a line informing me whether you have received the books, or not.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. K. Sutherland", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
