FUNCTIONS, ACTIVITIES & COMMENTS

The choir participated in all church and special services in 1992. There was only one choir meeting held. The choir sent 2 delegates to the Annual Choir Assembly in Cambridge, MA on 10/31/92. Three other choir members attended the Saturday workshop that weekend. Four choir members applied for the Margaret R. Hasegopian scholarship by the AACCA and ^{all} received $100 toward vocal training. Two choir members represented our parish by singing in the New Britain Chorale, under the auspices of NEWBRARC for an April '92 performance. The Choir Director and her assistant worked with ~~the~~ 6 students during the year as they came up to the choir every 2 weeks.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all my choir members for their dedication each + every Sunday through the year.

On behalf of the choir members, we express our deepest sympathy for the loss of our Assistant Organist, Sam Hovgas, who served our church many years. He will be remembered along with Esgochi Simonian each Sunday during the Badarak.

On behalf of the choir, I wish to thank those who made monetary donations to support our church choir.

Respectfully,

Adrienne Damann

On behalf of the choir members, we express our sincere appreciation to Louis Steinke for Building the choir a new cabinet to house our choir robes, and to Emil Mosey and Louis Steinke for the ~~the~~ work they did in the choir room i.e., the ceilings, painting, etc.
