Dear Mr. Antreasian:

I understand from your letter that you are under the impression that I have not paid my annual Stewardship dues.

I am afraid your bookkeeping dept. is in error. Do you remember in April last I handed you a check and said that was my annual $100 dues? Well, maybe you did not instruct the Bookkeeping to put it under its right column. Anyway, I am sending you another $100 so that I won't be delinquent. Please see to it that it is marked properly.

Sincerely,

Haik Kavookjian
