ԱՌԱՋՆՈՐԴՈՒԹԻՒՆ ՀԱՅՈՑ ԱՄԵՐԻԿԱՅԻ ԱՐԵՒԵԼԵԱՆ ԹԵՄԻ

BISHOP KHAJAG BARSAMIAN, PRIMATE

PRIMATE'S MESSAGE

Greetings to you, our precious youth, who have gathered here in Bayside, New York, to be part of the Annual ACYOA General Assembly and Sports Weekend. It is a great joy to see our young people together again, participating in sports, social activities, educational programs, and fellowship. You are truly the Young Church alive!

The Armenian Church looks to the young and in fact, sees herself in the young, in you as a group and in each of you as individuals. The Church sees in you the continuity of her mission to the Armenian people and to the world. This is how it has been since the beginning, even since apostolic times. St. John in his First Epistle offers testimony of this: "I am writing to you, young people, because you have overcome the evil one...I write to you, children, because you know the Father...I write to you, young people, because you are strong, and the Word of God abides in you." (I John 2:13-14)

Your love for your Church, the strength of your faith, and the enthusiasm and dedication that accompanies it, reveals that you are true sons and daughters of the Armenian Church. We are pleased that you have begun taking a greater part in the life of your parishes by becoming parish council members, choir members, altar servers, and teachers. You are being asked to be part of important committees and projects and you are accepting that call. You have shown a sincere concern for the changes that are taking place in Armenia and you are supporting your fellow Armenians on their chosen path of independence. Through your spirit of volunteerism, you have participated in helping them in their struggle as a new nation, with all the responsibilities and sacrifices which that entails. You have also expressed a great understanding of and desire for unity; your generation will prove that Armenians can be united, when we come together as one Church, sharing the same mission and vision.

Seeing your dedication to our Church, culture and people assures me that whatever obstacles we may encounter, together we will continue to grow and prosper in the diaspora as well as in our Motherland. The pride and love that I feel for you is energized by the pride and love that I know you have for your Church and heritage.

I hope that you enjoy this gathering and all the activities that it offers. Rejoice in the wonderful opportunity that you have to be with your fellow Armenians, establishing and strengthening your ties with young people from all parts of this American continent. The friendships that you make here are all occasions for you to learn and grow. I pray that the Holy Spirit will strengthen and inspire you as you continue to grow in faith and wisdom. Serve the Lord with joy and gladness.

With prayers,

Bp. K. Barsamian

ՍՐԲՈՑ ԼՍՏ ԿԱՅՑ ԵՎԵՂԵՑ

ARMENIAN CHURCH OF THE HOLY MARTYRS

It has been said that there is only one tragedy in life—not to be a saint. A saint is simply a person who cooperated with God's plan for his or her life, a person who believed God's promises, and chose God. When you begin your adult life, are you listening to Christ and giving him a chance to make something beautiful, successful and great out of you? That is all a saint is. A saint is a person who was on the right road on the journey through life. What road are you on as you travel in and through the City of Youth?

Young people in the world today are being offered all sorts of avenues down which they are invited to go in order to find the Yellow-Brick Road to Happiness, Gold, and the Magic of Success. Watch TV and think about it. Are you going to be a track star, a billionaire, a movie star, a basketball hero, President of the U.S.A. or of Armenia? Maybe, if that is what God wants for you. But God may want something else, some other way for you to achieve happiness and fulfillment. Perhaps it will be as a wealthy or famous person or perhaps God is calling you to be a priest or a missionary, a theologian or a scientist, a governor or a teacher or a church musician or a martyr.

Youth is the right time to begin to serve and love God with all one's heart and mind and soul and strength. It was never intended that God's way should be a reluctant last choice. The right thing is to choose God first, not last. Choose Christ for your youth, when your energy and hopes are high, and you are choosing not only a good youth but a good middle-age, a good old age, a good eternity. Choose God's way, and God will take care of you. He will look after you and make the best of you. He will show you challenges higher than Mount Everest and he will make you a winner. He will end your loneliness and crown your life with success.

Don't wait for the church authorities, the minister or your parents, to beg you to come forward for Christ. Make your own decision now and come forward yourself. Tell your priest or your church that you really want to give your life to God. Begin your training soon as a young Christian leader or student or worker. Don't feel that you are unworthy, spoiled by sin or your mistakes. For God all things are possible. He will heal you, rescue you from your difficulties and lead you out of unhappiness and into the happiness of the community, give you the best friends, make you a social leader and a blessing to the whole world. He will save you, and will help you to save others from misery and suffering.

Choose God today; come forward for Christ and choose the right path through the City of Youth.

Prayerfully yours,

Fr. Vazken Karayan

ARMENIAN CHURCH YOUTH ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA

Diocese of the Armenian Church of America

Bishop Khajag Barsamian, Primate

Central Council

Dear Friends:

There is much to rejoice. We are all winners this weekend. Our lifelong friendships and shared experiences are the real first place trophies. At the General Assembly, as one body, we have again taken a look at the past year and have also caught a glimpse of the year to come. The future seems bright. We can see the light at the end of the tunnel!

But is there also not much to trouble and worry us? Our chapters and our parishes are suffering through financial difficulties. And, spirituality in our community is at a low. Yes, we see that light at the end of the tunnel but is it just the glow of the entrance sign for the next tunnel?

Well, we could take this time to weep and mope. But we must remember that through every trial and tribulation, our forebears had faith, hope and joy. The Sports Weekend Banquet and Ball is a time of celebration. It is a time to remember and revel in the good. There is no greater good or joy than our love for one another.

So, today, let us not look for the flame. Instead, let us look for the embers, and remember that as long as there is an ember, we can build the fire.

But with sunrise tomorrow, let us build this fire!

With love,

Charles H. Shooshan III

ARMENIAN CHURCH YOUTH ORGANIZATION
WESTERN DIOCESE
WESTERN DIOCESE OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH OF NORTH AMERICA

Greetings from California!

Congratulations to the Bayside Chapter for hosting the ACYOA General Assembly and National Sports Weekend. The ACYO-Western Diocese extends their support in gratification to all the dedicated and hard working members who have helped make this a successful weekend.

This is a time to enjoy each others fellowship, to reunite old friendships and establish new ones among ACYO members gathered together from the tri-Diocese. It is also a time to give thanks to God who has brought us together to maintain the spiritual strength of religious commitment between ourselves and our Armenian Apostolic Church.

The ACYO-WD Central Council would like to invite you to our 1992 General Assembly that will be held in San Diego, California on November 27-29, 1992. We hope to see you there for another fun-filled weekend.

Sincerely,

ACYO-WD Central Council

CENTRAL COUNCIL

The ACYOC Central Council, would like to extend its congratulations and best wishes to the Bayside Chapter on organizing the 1992 General Assembly and National Sports Weekend. We are sure this weekend has seen the coming together of old friends as well as bringing new friends together to form one big family and to reaffirm our faith in the Armenian Church.

The last few years have also seen the strengthening of the bonds that tie the ACYOA and the ACYOC together as sister organizations. The ACYOC is looking forward to continuing this relationship to better both organizations and to also provide the youth of North America a sense of purpose and belonging within the Armenian Church and Community.

In closing, we would like to take this opportunity to invite you to two ACYOC events: ACYOC National Winter Sports Weekend and Leadership Seminar, February 1993 in Ottawa, Ontario; and ACYOC General Assembly and Summer Sports Weekend, July 1-5, 1993 in Mississauga, Ontario.

Sincerely,

Dalita Musluyan, CMA
Chairperson, Central Council

1992 ACYOA General Assembly and National Sports Weekend

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the Holy Martyrs Bayside ACYOA Chapter, I welcome you to New York. It is hard to believe that a year has come and gone. It feels like I just left Cafe Hagop in Hartford last night.

The year has been full of hard work, excitement, dedication and fun for our chapter. Our entire church family has played a major role in planning this great event. It is impossible to measure the amount of support and love that we received. We are very grateful and offer our most sincere thanks.

Our biggest "thank you" goes out to you, the ACYOA members. Without you there is no way that this would be a successful event. As we all know, it is through the ACYOA that we make many friends and develop lifelong friendships. Isn't that the reason we are all here tonight, and every Labor Day weekend? Without you, the ACYOA loses some of its strength.

To ensure the success of the ACYOA and all of its events in the future, we need to attract new members and rekindle the interest of those who are not as involved as they were before. Share your experience with a friend who is not here tonight. Hopefully, they will be able to join us next year. It is so important for us to guide the ACYOA juniors through their transfer into the seniors. We are the future of the Armenian Church, and today's juniors are the ACYOA's future. If we can do these two things we will be able to double our membership, increase attendance at all events, and strengthen the ACYOA.

Once again, welcome to the greatest city in the world. Enjoy "Hye Above New York." I look forward to seeing you next year.

Sincerely,

Doug Aprahamian
Chairperson, 1992 General Assembly

The Prayer of the ACYOA

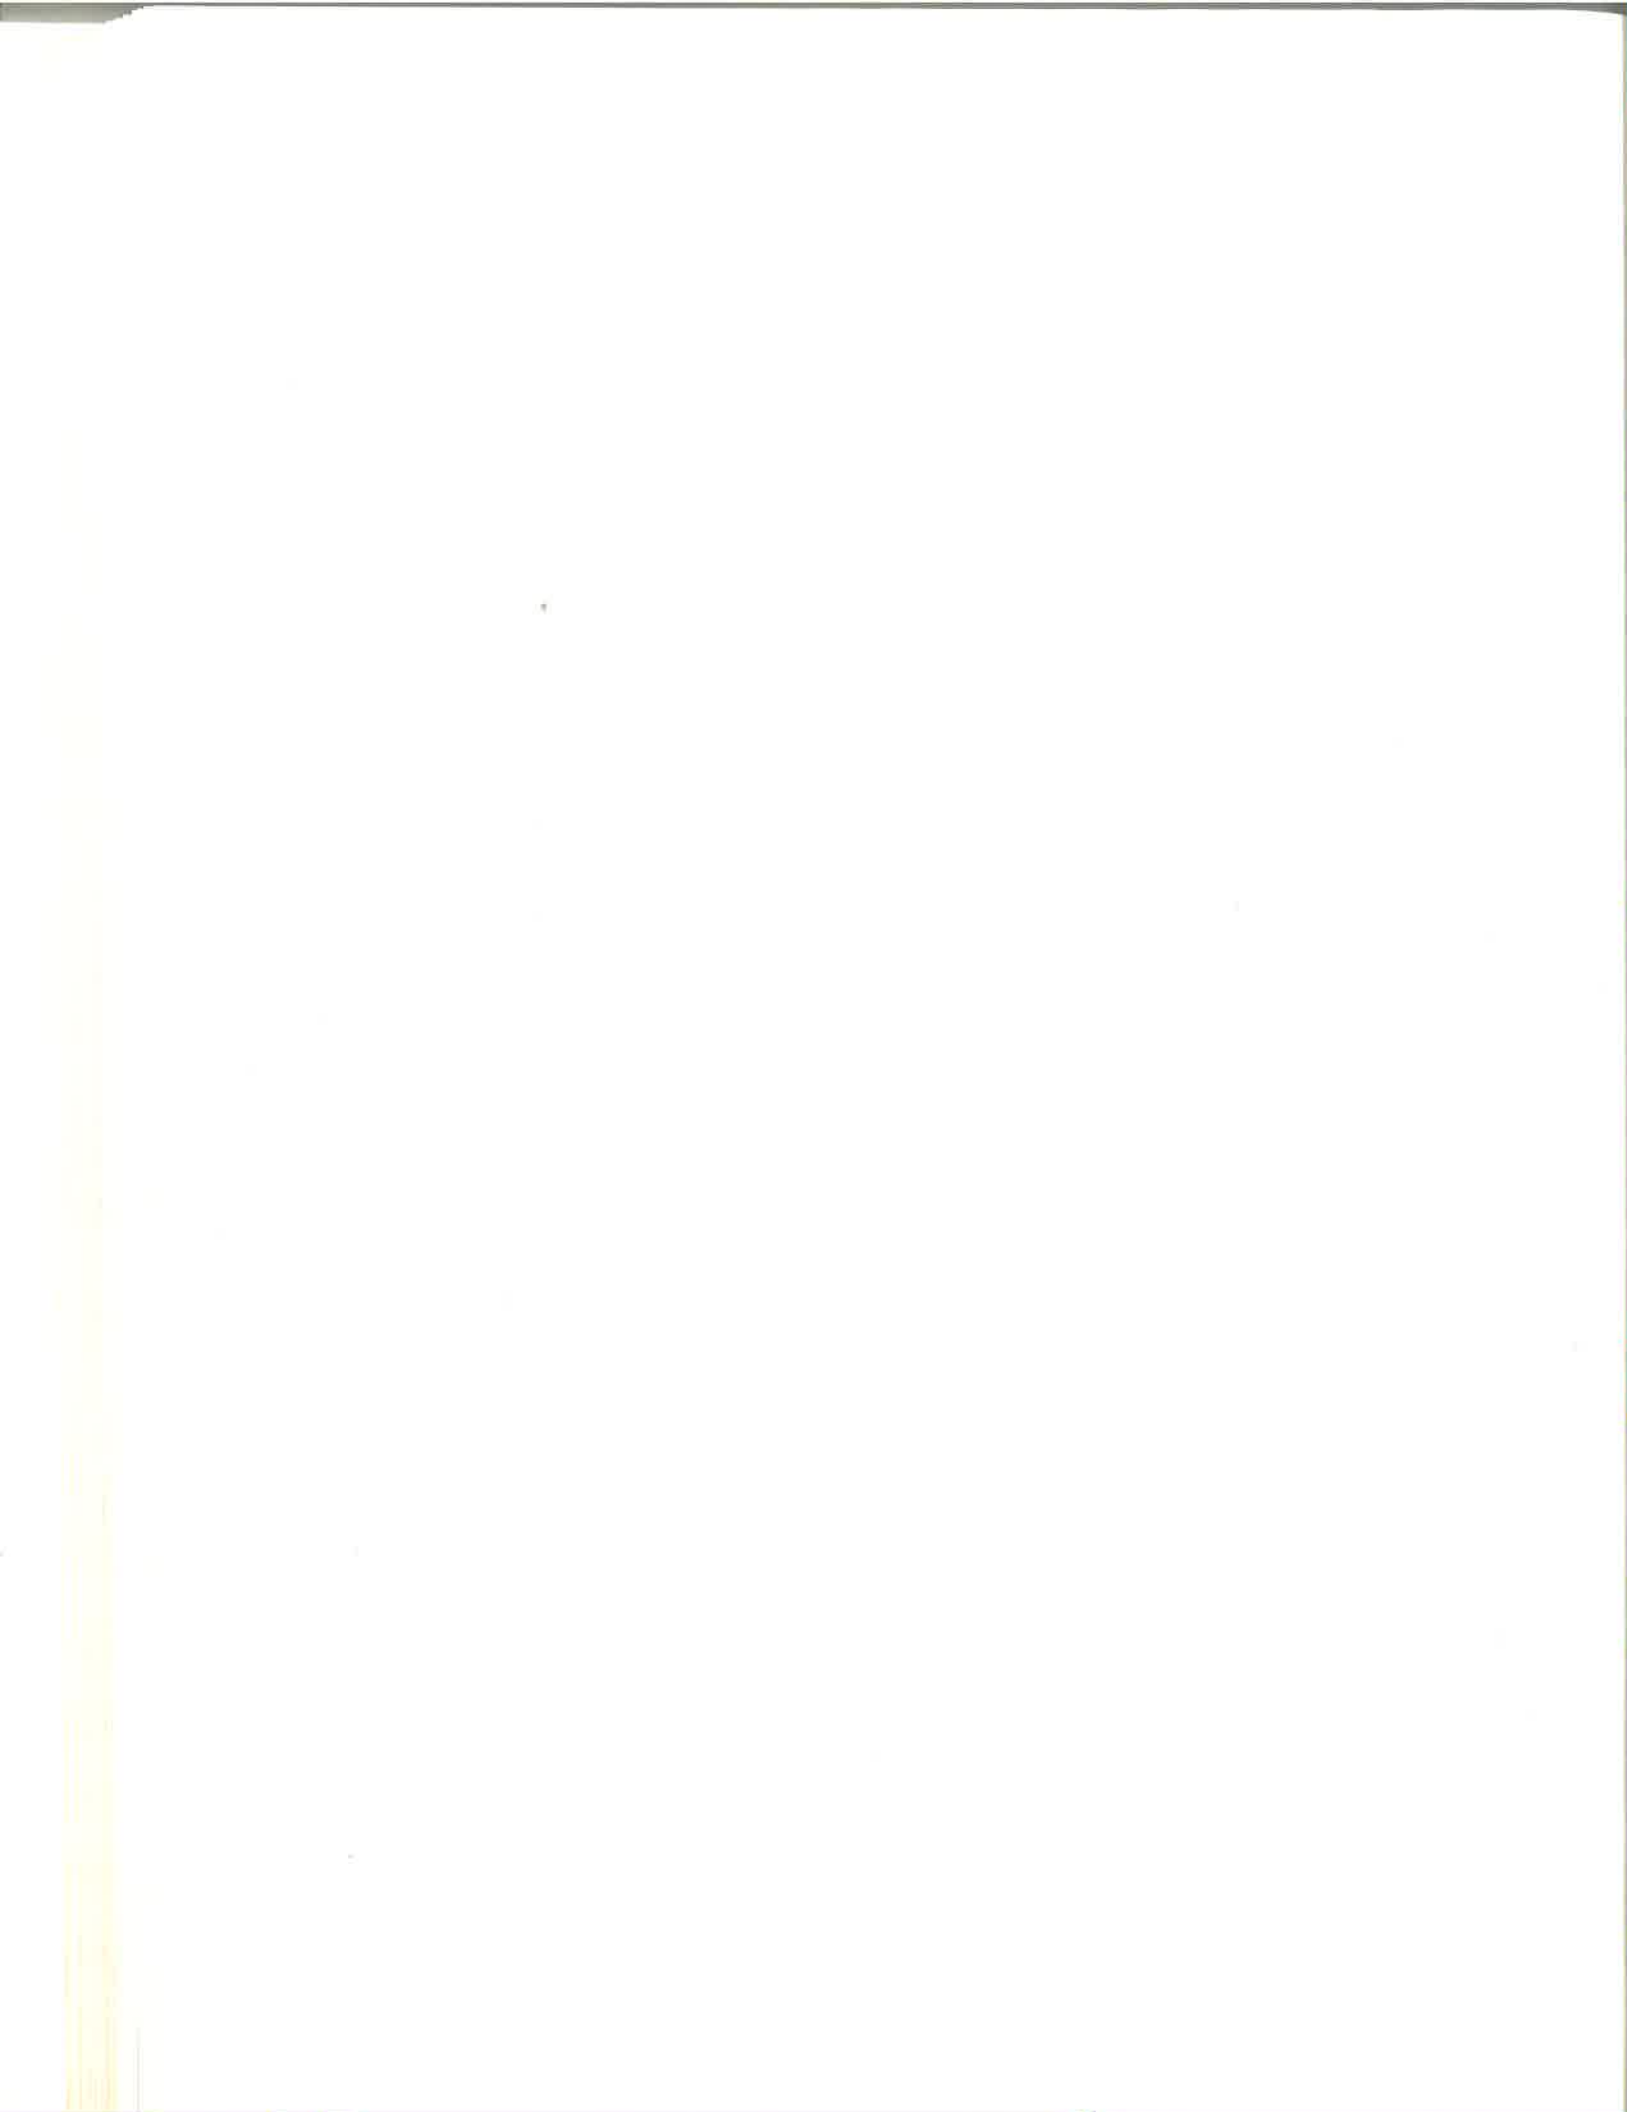

O Lord our Savior Jesus Christ, Who art the Way, the Truth, and the Life, give us the youth of the Church of Armenia, we beseech Thee, the Wisdom to know, to love, and to serve Thee in our personal lives severally, and the corporate life of our Organization.

Thou that leadest men in the way, lead us, thy children, that we may be able to serve the Church through our people, with courage and vision, and in the faith of our illustrious forefathers. Inspire us, O Lord, and open our eyes to Thy light, that we may cherish and profit by the heritage which our forefathers have left to us, and that we may be aware of our responsibilities as citizens of our beloved country, the United States of America.

Fill us, O Christ our God, with the Holy Spirit, that we may be the obedient and unselfish servants of the Will of our Heavenly Father, to whom, together with Thee and the Holy Spirit, is befitting Glory, Dominion and Honor, now and always and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Pledge

I solemnly promise and declare upon my honor, that as a member of the Armenian Church Youth Organization of America, I shall, to the best of my ability, be a faithful child of the Armenian Church: shall be a devoted upholder of the Armenian cultural heritage; shall be a loyal citizen of the United States; and I shall diligently abide by the objects, policies and decisions of the Armenian Church Youth Organization of America. I shall not strive for personal recognition and pleasure, but will serve our Church, our Community, and our Country, for the greater glory of God.
