

Dear John and Alice Keishian:

We share the joy you must feel on the 60th anniversary of your wedding. It is a milestone few achieve and fewer still with the wonderful family and happy environment you have been able to create and enjoy.

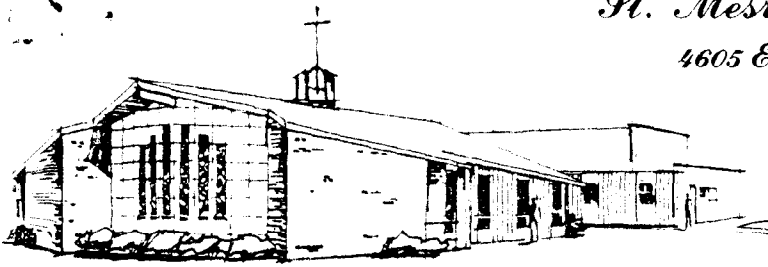

Your love for one another has endured over half a century and is a triumph of Christian values in a world sadly lacking the same. It is truly a blessing to have enjoyed sixty years of life together, especially when those years were so imbued with service to Church and community. For many years the St. Mesrob Armenian Church of Racine, Wisconsin, has been the focus of your energies. You have both served the Armenian community unstintingly and faithfully.

I offer my warmest congratulations to you both on this occasion and pray that the Lord grant you many more years of happy life together with His love and blessings.

With prayers,
