Dear ACYOA Member:

At the invitation of His Holiness Vasken I, Supreme Patriarch and Catholicos of All Armenians, the ACYOA will send an ACYOA Earthquake Relief Team to Armenia. As part of the reconstruction and rehabilitation plan outlined by His Holiness during his "Rising in Recovery" mission to the United States in February, the ACYOA will select twenty-five members to live and work as a team in the stricken city of Stepanavan. First preference will be given to dues-paid members who must be 18 years of age or over.

The ACYOA Earthquake Relief Team will set up a camp in Stepanavan and erect a pre-fabricated 4-family home. The team will be completely self-sufficient, since we do not want to use the limited resources available to the residents of Stepanavan. We will also spend time with the many people who are in need of the comfort and hope we can give to them through our deeds and our love.

The mission's duration will be 4 weeks, beginning in late June and ending in late July. Exact dates will be determined shortly. The team will go to Etchmiadzin to receive the blessings of His Holiness and spend some time in Yerevan.

Members of the ACYOA Earthquake Relief Team will be selected by His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, Primate, Diocese of the Armenian Church of America and the ACYOA Central Council. In order to be selected, please complete and agree to the following steps:

- (1) Complete the enclosed application and accompanying forms. Return them to: Douglas Tashjian, ACYOA Executive Secretary, 630 Second Avenue, New York, New York 10016.
Deadline: Saturday, April 29, 1989 Acceptance notification: Wednesday, May 3, if chosen:
- (2) ■ Provide U.S. passport and four (4) 1 1/16 x 1 1/2 inch black and white photographs of yourself for Soviet Visa application. Deadline for receipt of passports and photos: Monday, May 8. Since this process is time-consuming, we advise that you apply immediately. Those who do not comply with this deadline will forfeit their place.
 - Attend an Orientation Meeting at the Diocesan Center, Saturday, May 13, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Participants are responsible for travel expenses, and the Diocese will provide room and board.
 - Participants are responsible for travel expenses between their homes and New York City.
 - Participants are responsible for round-trip airfare between New York and Yerevan (approximately $1,200). This requirement may be waived at a later date should the ACYOA receive these seats at a reduced rate.

The ACYOA is currently making attempts to obtain donations and contributions to cover the costs of this mission and is coordinating all other aspects of this project. If you are selected to be a member of the ACYOA Earthquake Relief Team, we will ask that you accept some of the responsibilities involved in its planning.

This is probably the greatest undertaking the ACYOA has organized. If you feel you can contribute your talents, hard work, leadership, and Christian love, you will be of invaluable service to Armenia. Thank you for your concern, and we look forward to receiving your application.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas Tashjian

Dear Armenian Young Adult:

The Diocese of the Armenian Church of America invites you to consider participating in a 4-week program entitled: "Summer Internship" at the Diocesan Center in New York City - July 9 through August 5, 1989.

The program offers an opportunity for Armenian young adults to work at the Diocesan Center in its various departments and offices. A stipend is provided at $100.00 per week, as well as most meals, lodging, transportation, supervision and training. Lodging for interns will be at a dormitory of New York University; interns will use public transportation in travelling to and from the Diocesan Center. First preference will be given to applicants who are current dues paid members of the ACYOA, on a first come, first served basis.

The 40-hour work week format will be used, possibly including some weekend days. Possible assignments may include, among others: Primate's Office, Department of Armenian Language Lab and Resource Center, Religious Education, ACYOA, "The Armenian Church" Newspaper, Public Relations, Cathedral Operations, Museum, Library, Accounting, Data Processing, Reception, Tour Guides, etc. (see list on application).

This program is an opportunity to serve the Church at the Diocese; to see and be part of Diocesan operations; to spend some time in New York City; and to understand more about the Church from a very practical perspective. Selective participants will be screened and consulted before assignments are made.

Use the enclosed application and return by May 31, 1989. Space is limited. If you need additional information, please feel free to contact me at (212) 686-0710 during office hours.

May the Risen Lord strengthen and guide you in your endeavors during this Holy Season of Easter.
