

The ACYOA of the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America

invites all Armenians to join together to commemorate

Martyrs Day

Saturday, April 23, 1988

at 8:00 p.m.

"Home"

an original play by Jan Balakian

"The Psychological Impact of the Genocide"

Dr. Haigaz Grigorian, psychiatrist

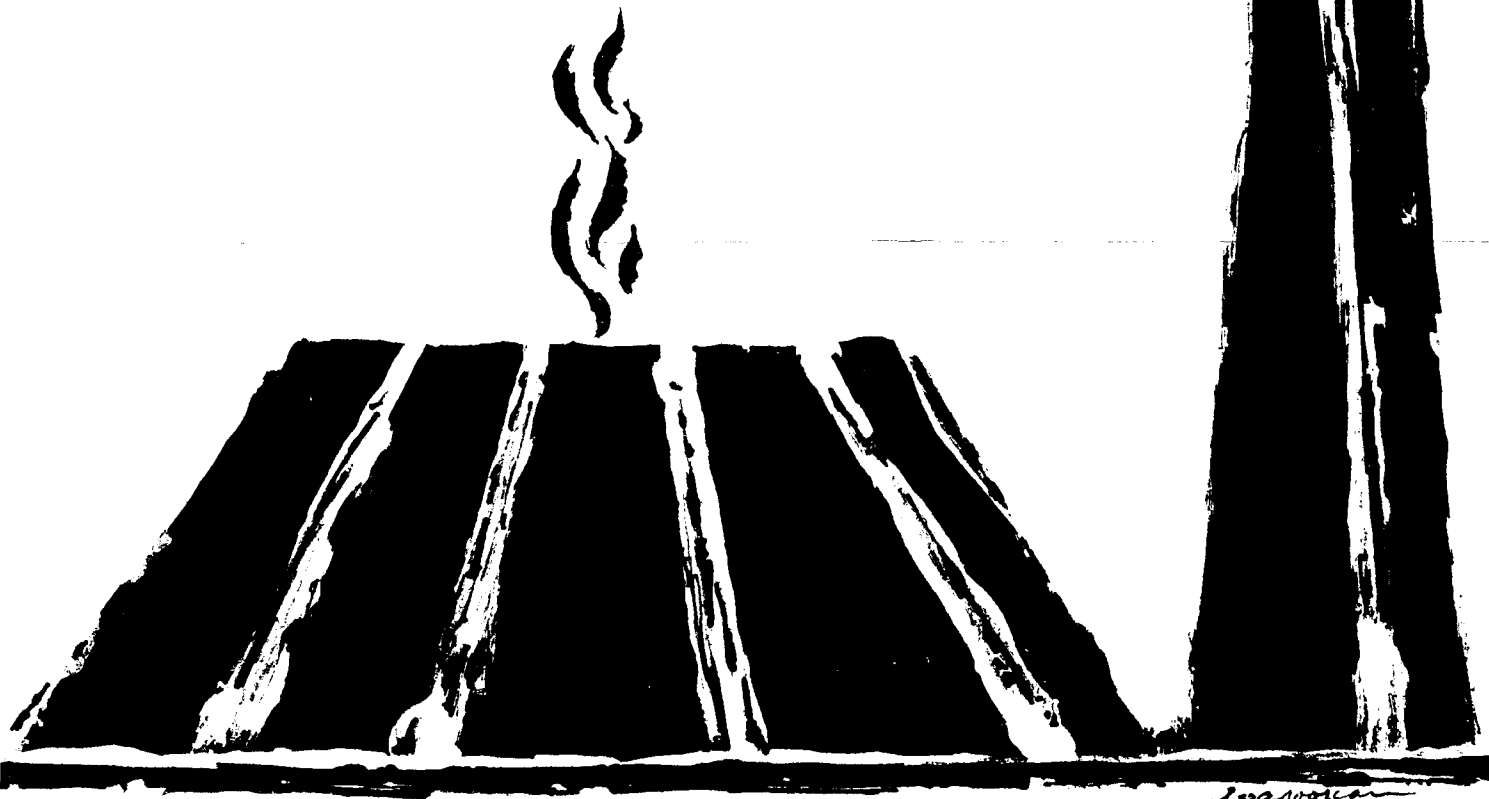

Poetry Readings

Candlelight Requiem Service

presided over by the Primate,

His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian

Haik and Alice Kavookjian Auditorium
630 Second Avenue, New York City

Haigaz Grigorian

MARTYRS' DAY

April 23, 1988

8:00 p.m.

PROGRAM

Home

prize winner, 1988 Heermans-McCalmon competition, Cornell University an original one-act play by Jan Balakian

Director	Evanne Christian
Stage Manager	Kathy Matis
Sophia	Nancy Lipschultz
Krikor	Lou Spirito

All poetry in Home is from Sad Days of Light by Peter Balakian

The Psychological Impact of the Genocide

DR. Haikaz M. Grigorian

Poetry Readings

"The Last Prayer," Shahan Natali.Anie Sanentz Kalayjian
"Prayer on the Threshold of Tomorrow," Vahan Tekeyan; translated by Diana Der Hovanessian and Marzbed Margossian.Nairi Checkosky

Remarks

His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, Primate

Candlelight Requiem Service

St. Vartan Armenian Cathedral

His Eminence Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, presiding

Sponsored by the Armenian Church Youth Organization
(Senior and Junior)

Diocese of the Armenian Church of America
630 Second Avenue
New York, N.Y.

