The place: New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel
The day: Sunday, November 28, 1976
The time: Cocktails, 3:30 PM; dinner, 4:30
Black tie optional

Master of Ceremonies will be Mike Connors, "Mannix" of TV fame. A distinguished list of other famous Armenian-Americans will attend, as will celebrities of the entertainment and sports worlds and officials of government to the highest level.

Focal point of the occasion will be the presentation of twenty-one magnificent tapestries as a bicentennial gift to America in the name of 600,000 deeply grateful Armenian-Americans. Depicting scenes in New York's history up to 1861, these tapestries were designed in 1912 by muralist

Albert Herter. They measure as large as 6' x 33'. The Armenian Sisters Academy of Radnor, Pa., on behalf of the eleven sponsors shown above with Mr. Connors, is presenting the tapestries to the nation and, in particular, to the City of New York. The tapestries will be placed in city museums and institutions including the Metropolitan.

For just $38.00 per person, you can attend. And this message is a warm invitation to do precisely that. To join us for cocktails, dinner, and a delightful evening.

But in truth this message is something more than that.

It is, quite simply, an invitation to come see history happen.
