

Excerpts from

LEGACY

... the Armenian Heritage
through Motion Pictures

LEGACY depicts the work of the Armenian Film Foundation and the importance of motion pictures in telling the Armenian story. Rare sequences reveal for the first time the burning of Smyrna, Kurds living on slopes of Mount Ararat, lost Armenian communities in the Great Syrian Desert, and selected testimonies of eyewitness survivors of the Armenian Genocide now living in North America and Australia. Time 23 Minutes.

Narrators:

*Governor George Deukmejian
Mike Connors
Walter Karabian*

THE ARMENIAN FILM FOUNDATION

was established in 1979 as a non-profit California Corporation dedicated to the documentation on film and video of all aspects of the Armenian heritage and life. It is an effort to inspire pride and to create world-wide recognition of the Armenian people, their contributions, and their cause.

The Armenian Heritage Series is a visual encyclopedia of the rich cultural inheritance of the Armenian people, intended for home use by every Armenian family wanting to preserve their heritage.
