St. Leon's Armenian Church
FAIR LAWN, N. J.

Dear Faithful or Parishioner,

One of the most precious and beautiful sayings in our Prayer Book reads as follows: "Yeranee yegeghetzi shinoghatz" — "Blessed are church builders".

Indeed in this expression the Armenian people have formed their life. For more than seventeen centuries, Armenians all over the world have built churches in order to preserve their religious and cultural heritage.

According to the sacred tradition and custom of the Armenian Church, faithful build the church by donating a memorial in the name of departed loved ones. Memorials also may be donated by the families for taking part in this sacred task and to maintain our glorious Armenian heritage which has been passed on through each generation to us.

The response to the Memorial Gift Drive has been very heart-warming. Many people have already donated specific memorials, but many items still remain. Please look over the remaining items, fill in the attached coupon stating which item you would like and mail in the self-addressed envelope.

Your Memorial Committee:

Rev. Carnig Hallajian — 791-1583
Zaven Marootian, Chairman — 772-3856
George Bedrosian, Co-Chairman — 694-1241
