PRAYERS FROM OUR SPIRITUAL HERITAGE

Translated by Paul Garrett

AT THE BEGINNING OF THE DAY

O Lord, help me to greet the coming day in peace. Help me in all things to rely on Your holy will. In every hour of the day reveal Your will to me. Bless my dealings with all who surround me. Teach me to treat all that comes to me throughout this day with peace of soul and with the firm conviction that Your will governs all. In all I do and say, guide my thoughts and feelings. In unforeseen events never let me forget that all things are sent by You. Teach me to act firmly and wisely, without embittering or embarrassing others. Give me strength to bear the fatigue of the coming day with all that it shall bring. Direct my will. Teach me to pray. Pray Yourself within me. Amen.

AT THE END OF THE DAY — (By St. Macarius the Great)

O Eternal God, King of all creation, having brought me to this present hour, forgive all the sins I have committed today in thoughts, words, or deeds. Cleanse my soul from every stain of flesh or spirit which drags it low. Enable me to sleep tonight in peace, then to rise once more from my humble bed and please You throughout my life by conquering all the enemies—both human and demonic—which fight against me. Deliver me, Lord, from the vain thoughts which corrupt me and from all evil desires. For You rule as King in power and glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

A PRAYER OF PENANCE — (By St. Ephraim The Syrian)

O Lord and Master of my life, keep me from being lazy, meddling, ambitious, filled with idle talk. Rather, give prudence, humility, patience, and love to me, Your servant. O Lord, my King, grant that I may see my own sins rather than judge those around me; for You alone deserve praise forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER TO THE MOST HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

O gracious Mother of our gracious King, most pure and blessed Mother of God, Mary, pour out the mercy of your Son, our God, on my helpless soul. And pray that He may help me live in righteousness, that I may spend the remaining time of my life in purity, and through you so attain Paradise, O Mother of God, uniquely pure and blessed by Him, Amen.

PRAYER TO ONE'S GUARDIAN ANGEL

O holy Angel, given me by Christ to guard and protect my body and soul, forgive the wicked deeds I have committed today, and deliver me from every snare set by Satan, my enemy and adversary. May I not anger God by any sin. Pray for me, His servant, that my sinfulness and unworthiness may yield before the grace and mercy of the All-Holy Trinity, the Mother of my Lord Jesus Christ, and all His People. Amen.

PRAYER TO ONE'S PATRON SAINT

Pray to God for me, Saint. . . ., for since He is pleased with you, I run to you eagerly, knowing you will be quick to help me by praying for my soul!

PRAYER BEFORE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION — (By St. John Chrysostom)

O God, absolve, forgive, and pardon all the sins which I have committed in word, deed, or thought, willingly and unwillingly, consciously or unconsciously; remove them all in Your goodness and love for mankind.

Accept now the prayers offered on my behalf by Your most pure Mother, Your spiritual servants the holy angels, Saint. . . ., and all the holy people who throughout the ages have pleased You well. Through them grant that receiving Your holy and pure Body and precious Blood may heal my soul and body and purify my thoughts of evil. For with Your Father and the Holy Spirit You rule as King in power and glory, now and forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION — (By St. Basil the Great)

O Christ, my Master and God, King of all ages and Maker of all things, I thank You for all the good You have given me, but especially for the pure and life-giving Mysteries in which You allowed me to partake today. I beg You, my gracious Lord, in Your love for mankind, preserve me under Your protection, in the shadow of Your wings. Grant that even until the moment I die I may partake worthily and with a pure conscience of Your Holy Gifts, that my sins may be forgiven and I may live forever. For You are indeed the Bread of life, a well overflowing with holiness, and the giver of all good things; and we glorify You with Your Father and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

BOOK OF HOURS

FOR HEALING

Dispel the pains and heal the sickness of Your people (or of Your servant.....), O Lord our God, and grant.....perfect health to all through Your all-conquering cross, through which You eliminated the weakness of the human race and condemned the enemy of our life and salvation. You are our life and our redemption, beneficent and all-merciful God, and You alone can forgive our sins, and remove diseases and sicknesses from our midst. You know our needs, O bestower of gifts, grant Your abundant mercy to all Your creatures each according to their needs. And through Your gifts may we always praise the all-holy Trinity, now and forever and ever. Amen.

BEFORE MEALS

Bless, O Christ our God, with a spiritual blessing the food and drink of us Your servants, and grant us health of soul and body. So that receiving Your earthly gifts with humility we may be worthy to receive Your eternal gifts and Your heavenly Kingdom with all Your saints. And thankfully glorify You with the Father and the All-Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen.

AFTER MEALS

May God bless those who shared this table, may He reward those who provided and served the food, and may Christ God, who fed us and filled us, bless all, and to Him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

FOR WISDOM — (By St. Nersess the Graceful)

Jesus, wisdom of the Father, give me the wisdom to think, to speak and to do what is good in Your view; keep me away from evil thoughts, words, and deeds. Have mercy on all Your creatures and especially on me, a great sinner.

FOR PROTECTION — (By St. Nersess the Graceful)

O Christ, the protector of all, stretch Your right hand over me and protect me day and night, when I am at home or on the road, during my sleep or when I am awake, that I may never fall. Have mercy on all Your creatures and especially on me, a great sinner.

THE PATIENT'S MIRROR
Video Oroscopy is making its mark as a revolutionary breakthrough in patient/dentist communication in the 90's. It allows the patient to see exactly what the dentist sees for the first time, by televising an enlarged image of the patient's inner mouth on a monitor. Needed dental treatment can be seen and recorded on hardcopy prints which will be especially beneficial in submitting to insurance companies for treatment needed to repair a fracture not seen on X-ray.
