

"EIGHTEENTH. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, so converted into cash by my Executors or if not so converted, then on hand, and of whatsoever kind or/and nature wherever situated, I give, devise and bequeath to the Armenian General Benevolent Union of America, Inc., a charitable corporation, organized in Delaware, with offices at 295 Fifth Avenue, New York City, New York, and its successor and/or successors as trustee, in trust for the uses and purposes, with the powers and duties, and under the terms and conditions following, that is to say:

The said Trustee shall have full power and authority to manage and control the trust estate, and to sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part thereof, upon such terms and conditions as to it may seem fit and proper, it may invest and re-invest all or any part of the trust estate in such stocks, common and preferred, bonds, notes, securities or other property, whether of the class or kind now or hereafter ordinarily approved or held lawful for the investment of trust funds or not.

(1) The Trustee shall pay one-third of the income of the trust estate annually and in such installments as it may seem proper for the use and benefit of Mrs. Mary Carlson, of the City of St. Louis, Missouri, during her natural life and upon her death the Trustee shall accumulate such one-third of the income and add same to the corpus of the trust and apply the income thereof as herein provided.

(2) The said Trustee shall pay one-third of the income of said trust estate to the Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church in America, Inc., of 630 Second Avenue, New York, State of New York, to defray the expenses of clergymen of the Armenian Church in serving the spiritual needs of various Armenian communities in the United States, where no Armenian clergyman officiates.

(3) The remaining one-third of the income of the trust estate shall be retained for the uses of the said Armenian General Benevolent Union of America, Inc.

(4) No fee shall be charged against the trust estate by said Trustee for its services as such Trustee for the reason that by the terms of this trust it is the beneficiary of one-third of the income."

NOTE: This is the fourth page of the last will and testament of Napoleon Hantzian which comprises twenty sections on six pages, and each page is separately signed by him. The <sup>second (2)</sup> ~~two~~ divisions of the eighteenth section particularly concern the Diocese of the Armenian Church.
