Dear Father Arten:

We have made plans to have Jack Antreassian visit our various parishes in the next few months as our personal representative. It is our intention to have him spend a day in each community, meet with the parish councils and executives of various church organizations and discuss with them any matters of mutual concern, from administration to programs and activities.

We have enclosed a schedule of visits to the midwest.

Please write us immediately acknowledging these dates so that specific plans can be made.

Prayerfully,

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian
