Dear Mr. Hitikian:

We refer to a letter dated January 4, 1982 from Fr. Tashjian (copy enclosed).

We confirm receipt of 3 payments, in November and December of 1981, totalling $240.60.

Our invoice #2536-2543 for $390.54, reflects the total of items sent to Fr. Tashjian as per his initial request. Kindly disregard our invoice #2814-5. The items on this invoice were sent to Fr. Tashjian by mistake, and as they were returned to us immediately, this invoice should not be taken into account.

Some of the items returned to us (ref: #2536-43) at a later date, were damaged with glue or pen marks. We are shipping these items back to you, and taking their cost into account. The items are:

Traditional Designs
Simon Samsonian
Ambassador Morgenthau's Story
Armenian-American Poets
Armenia: Crossroads to Culture
Evil Spirit
For the Sake of Honor

We have noted that Fr. Tashjian has not taken into consideration our 25% discount rate (mentioned #2536-43) in his accounts.

As follows is a re-adjusted account with the Bookstore:

Total of invoice #2536-43, including 25% discount	$390.00

Finally, our records indicate the following outstanding amount with reference to books ordered by and sent to your Sunday School in 1981:

October 1981	42.25
Total Due	$137.75
Less your credit balance	7.64

We hope that the account adjustments meet with your approval. Please let us know which address the damaged books should be sent to.

Yours sincerely,
