

Haverhill, Mass

Armenian Celebration Planned

St. Gregory the Illuminator Armenian Apostolic Church, Main St., will join other Armenian churches throughout Eastern Massachusetts in celebrating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Armenian Diocese in America with a combined ecumenical service Thursday, Nov. 8, at the Holy Trinity Armenian Church, Cambridge.

Archbishop Torkom Manoogian, diocesan primate of the Armenian Church of America, will officiate as all heads of denomination churches are invited, along with Gov. Francis W. Sargent and several high-ranking officials.

Clergy from the Greater Boston and Haverhill areas will attend, including the Rev. Nerses Baboorian, pastor of St. Gregory's Church.

A bus will leave from in front of the Haverhill church at 6:30 p.m. and reservations can be made by calling either Charles H. Serabian, 372-5688, or Harry Kasparian, 374-9467.
