

The Ultimate Affair

Weddings & Events Planned to Perfection

February 27, 1992

Dear Rose,

Enclosed are two of the three articles. Our Chairman, Richard Takeman, will also be sending these plus the third to you.

We all truly enjoyed the weekend with Bishop Shagan. I do hope you will escort him on his next visit!

With best wishes,

Liz

11 Chalet Drive - Methuen, Massachusetts 01844

(508) 683-1952

Religion

Bishop Barsamian will visit parish

HAVERHILL — His grace, Bishop Khajag Barsamian, primate of the Diocese of the Armenian church of America celebrates Divine Liturgy tomorrow at 10 a.m. at St. Gregory the Illuminator Church, 110 Main St.

This is the first time Bishop Barsamian visits the parish.

A banquet follows the service.

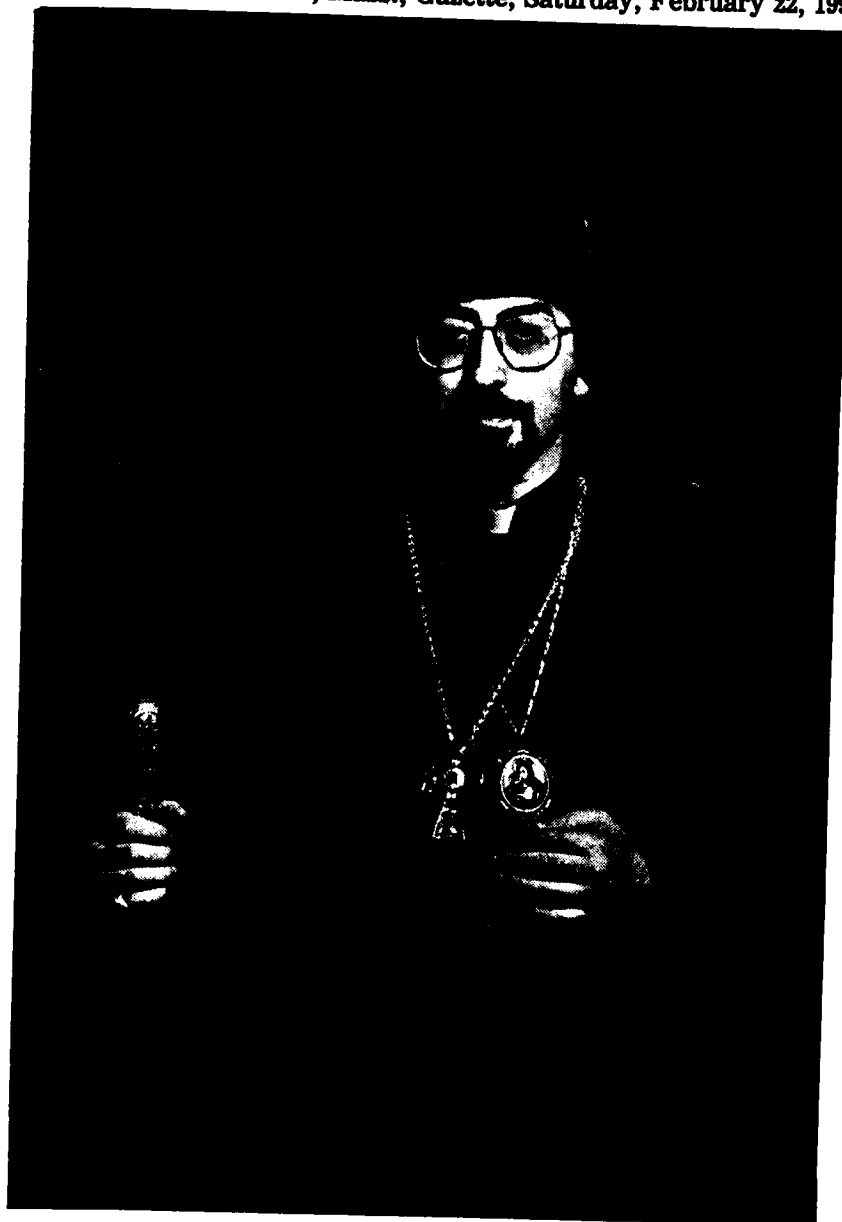

Religion
Roundup

Seminar on Judaism

ANDOVER — The comparisons and contrasts of Judaism and Christianity will be explored in a seminar at Temple Emanuel and Christ Church beginning Thursday.

"Along life's path" will examine the rites of passage from a Jewish and Christian perspective and will look at birth, confirmation, marriage and death.

Here is the schedule: Feb. 27 at Temple Emanuel, 7 Haggetts Pond Road; March 5 at Christ Church, 25 Central St.; March 12 at Temple Emanuel and April 2 at Christ Church.

BISHOP KHAJAG BARSAMIAN
Primate visiting Haverhill

Diocesan primate celebrating liturgy at St. Gregory Church

Bishop Khajag Barsamian, primate of the Diocese of the Armenian Church of America, will celebrate Divine Liturgy at 10 a.m. Sunday at St. Gregory the Illuminator Church, 110 Main St., Haverhill. A banquet will follow the service. This will be the first pastoral visit of the bishop at the church.

Khajag was elected primate of the diocese in May 1990, at the 88th Diocesan Assembly in Worcester. He was elevated to the rank of bishop by His Holiness Vasken I on Oct. 7, 1991 at the Cathedral of Etchmiadzin.