The Loosavorich was published 3 times this year. In the latest edition the staff started on a path toward a new format. Additionally, we were delighted to start publishing articles from Tom Vartebedian. We are looking forward to receiving ongoing information from the church organizations concerning their activities and meetings. We have also asked an individual to act as Loosavorich photographer in order that we may begin publishing photo's. We have been grateful to all those individuals who have graciously given us photo's through the years. We continue to raise funds through advertisers and donations.

Respectfully submitted,

Jn. Lana Kaishian
