Dear Mr. Sakian:

We are in receipt of your letter dated May 19, 1981 and apologize for the delay in answering.

We would like to advise you that it is possible for you to invite another pastor to perform services at your church. We are presently communicating with our insurance company so that we may be in a better position to advise you of what compensation is available in a situation such as this, if any. As soon as an answer is received, we will advise you.

Yours faithfully,
