MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL PARISH ASSEMBLY

CLEVELAND, OHIO - FEBRUARY 23, 1992

The annual parish assembly of St. Gregory of Narek Armenian Church was called to order at 1:32 p.m. by Parish Council Chairman Florence Karoghlanian. The acting president of the meeting, Rev. Father Garen Gdanian, opened the meeting with a prayer.

Florence Karoghlanian addressed the assembly with words of appreciation and encouragement for our future as a parish. She highlighted on key points and accomplishments of the year and closed by requesting our continued faith, love, and devotion to our Mother Church.

Jack Hacherian proceeded to read the roll call of dues paying members. There were 48 members present which did not constitute a quorum. A motion was made by David Andonian and seconded by Louise Demirjian to carry on with the meeting despite the lack of a quorum. The motion was accepted. The meeting was turned over to Leslie Bagdasarian who conducted the election of officers for the day. The nominations and results follow.

Chairman
Dick Aurslianian - 38
Jay Bagdasarian - 8

Secretary
Jeanne Arslanian - 36
Anne Karayan - 11

The following corrections to the minutes of the 1991 annual parish assembly were made.

1. Page 3, Para. 2, Line 4 - The year should read 1990 instead of 1991.
2. Page 4 - Adjacent lot details should read: The asking price is $300,000 instead of $300.

A motion was made to accept the minutes with the above mentioned corrections. Motion carried.

At this point, the Chairman of the day, Dick Aurslianian, presided over the meeting. The Nominating Committee continued with the election of 4 Parish Council members who will serve a two-year term. Results were as follows:

*Haig Arpajian - 35	*Arek Torosian - 29
*Ara Bagdasarian - 33	*Anton Yeranossian - 6
*Serop Demirjian - 42	*Louise Demirjian - 2
*Florence Karoghlanian - 30	*David Andonian - 1

The Chairman called for any comments or questions concerning the Diocesan Delegate's Report. Since there were none, he moved on to the Parish Auxiliary Organization Reports. David Andonian questioned the exclusion of the Social Club Report and was directed to page 24 where the complete financial report was located. Florence Goekjian made a motion to accept the organization reports as presented which was seconded by John Benneian. Motion carried.

Fr. Garen was called upon to offer his Pastoral Message. He noted that he has now served our community as a visiting clergyman for 14 Badaraks, 4 funerals, 2 cemetery visits, 4 hospital visits, 1 nursing home visit, 2 baptisms, 1 wedding, and 1 engagement. He thanked the community for the hospitalities directed toward him and acknowledged Florence Karoghlianian, Mourad Demirjian, Greg Yessaian, and the Parish Council members for their extra courtesies. He closed his message with a prayer that we would soon have a permanent parish priest.

The Chairman called upon the Nominating Committee to report the election results for the 1993 Auditing and Nominating Committees. Three members were to be elected for each committee with the following results:

Auditing Committee

*Jay Bagdasarian - 43	Jim Gideon - 27
*Jeanne Arslanian - 39	Harry Atkian - 0
*Grace Arslanian - 32	Debbie Venditti - 0

Nominating Committee

*Louise Demirjian - 31	Louise Ohanian - 21
*Anita Arpajian - 23	Leslie Bagdasarian - 20
*Arek Torosian - 23	Alice Bagdasarian - 17

Under New Business, Archie Andonian was called upon to give a presentation on the activities of the Social Services Committee which was formed in November of 1991. Archie gave a brief overview involving the initial formation of the committee touching upon the expectations and basic requirements as a refugee sponsor, and the cost of a family sponsorship. This was followed with a summary of the activities and events of the committee from its coordination meeting on November 17, 1991 through February 3, 1992. He noted that this was a joint venture with members from the Holy Cross Armenian Church. He concluded by recognizing the list of donors and volunteers who worked with the committee.

Dick Aurslianian thanked Archie for his presentation and called upon the membership for comments or questions. Thelma Bagdasarian asked Archie for an update on the occupations of our refugee family. Fr. Garan thanked Archie for his excellent presentation. Anne Karayan commented that the committee need not limit itself to serving refugees, but could expand as an organization to serve issues and problems in our own community. Florence Karoghlianian concluded the discussion by expounding further on how we came to accept and help our refugee family.

The Chairman called upon Serop Demirjian to explain the agenda item concerning morning service hours. Serop stated that the suggestion was made for Sunday services to begin at 11:00 a.m. when there is no visiting clergy, and 10:00 a.m. when there is. Helen Atkian questioned if this meant that church would be over at 1:00 p.m. instead of 12:00 p.m.. Thelma Bagdasarian voiced her opposition to the change citing that it would change the Sunday School schedule, would cause confusion when we did have a priest, and probably wouldn't change the time people attend services. She added that with the arrival of summer, many people would want to get out earlier rather than an hour later. Sam Mirakian made a motion to retain our present service hours with no changes. Helen Atkian seconded the motion. Following further discussion, a vote was held on the motion which was accepted.

Serop Demirjian was called upon to review the pastoral situation for our community. He noted that a Pastoral Search Committee has been formed consisting of Russ Arslanian, Ara Bagdasarian, Leslie Bagdasarian, Serop Demirjian, and Mona Karoghlanian. He explained that if the committee finds a possible candidate, a special parish meeting will be called for all members to discuss and vote on accepting the candidate. Serop acknowledged that one candidate was interviewed last year, but consideration was not pursued any further.

Thelma Bagdasarian asked about the status of holding Bingo on the church property and the Spring Festival. Florence Karoghlanian noted that the lack of volunteers to oversee Bingo activities prevented it from taking place, however, we did renew our license. She also noted that festival plans have been dropped because of other pending business.

Next on the agenda was a review of the Financial Report. John Benneian asked about the accounts receivable concerning Pasquale Catering. It was noted that Pasquale currently owes $6,360 which will be paid by the end of March. Fr. Garen questioned the amount for priest expenses should a new priest be assigned to our community. Jack Hacherian pointed out that a pastor stipend is included, should we get a priest. Fr. Garen also commented on the income from membership dues. For the size of our parish, he felt this amount was small ($14,095) and stressed personal giving rather than depending on fund raising activities. David Andonian questioned the lumping of funds under membership dues. He felt that after the $104 dues, monies collected should be included under pledges. Jack Hacherian responded that it will be included next year. David also asked why the hall rental was lower last year. The amount was lower due to less bookings, however, Jack noted that Exquisite Catering, which is run by Jenna's brother, will also share in the use of the facilities on a trial one year basis. At the end of one year, a contract agreement will be determined. With no further discussion, a motion to approve the 1992 budget was made by Sam Mirakian and seconded by David Andonian. The motion was accepted.

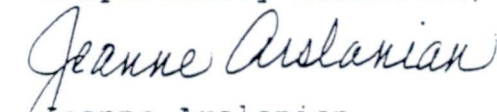

The Chairman recognized Alice Hacherian who asked about the status of our copy machine. She was told that it used for flyers, preparation of the annual reports, and miscellaneous notices, but was not capable of producing our Paros due to the slowness of copying multiple pages. Jack Hacherian commented that the service contract for the copier was dropped since it was no longer feasible at this time. Helen Atkian questioned why we don't sell the copier and raise funds to purchase a new one. Discussion followed, but no resolution was reached.

Thelma Bagdasarian thanked the Parish Council for the work they have put in this past year. Serop Demirjian thanked Florence Karoghlanian for her dedication, time, and effort which was put toward our church.

Prior to adjournment, David Andonian questioned why the balances of the organizations' treasuries exceeded $600. Florence Karoghlanian explained that the monies over this amount came in after the end of 1991 and will, therefore, be reflected in the next report.

Dick Aurslanian thanked the Nominating Committee, Secretary of the Day, and Serop Demirjian for serving as Deacon of our church. Fr. Garan offered thanks to Dick Aurslanian for serving as Chairman of the day and offered a closing prayer to conclude the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of the Deacon in Charge
June 1992- December 1992

I would like to begin my report with a special word of gratitude to those who made my welcome to Cleveland such a memorable event. The presence of His Eminence the Primate to introduce me to the community was especially meaningful for me as Cleveland is the first parish that I have been granted the authority to serve. My thanks to the Parish Council and to the Committee who made that day some six months ago such a special event.

During the first six months of my ministry in Cleveland I have attempted as much as possible to operate within the parameters of my understanding of the role of the Armenian Church. The Armenian Church is the national and official church of the Armenian people. She was begun under Divine inspiration and she continues and is sustained by the grace of God and by the cooperation of those who faithfully participate in her life. I am convinced that the Armenian Orthodox and Apostolic Church stands on equal footing with the other Christian churches around us. She contains a unique spiritual tradition which in some aspects surpasses other churches because of her venerable history. Thus I find as my greatest challenge to make the faith real, meaningful and attractive to people of our time, young and old alike. The Armenian Church is not a social club, but is a community of Christians bonded together by a unique and beautiful tradition.

In order to work on this goal I have placed a lot of emphasis on the Sunday experience. Most of our parishioners live far from the church. Therefore, I have been cautious about over scheduling. Sunday is the one day most can and should gather together as it is the day of worship. I am happy that attendance is increasing, though tardiness has become the norm for the majority, I have labored to make the worship meaningful and sermons informative, instructive as well as challenging. Growth is all essential and thus the sermon must encourage this.

The deacons and choir have been a great source of joy for me. Special thanks go to Serop Demirjian, Haig Arpajian, Thelma Bagdasarian and Anita Arpajian as well as to the entire choir for their unselfish, disciplined and consistent devotion. I am especially glad that the choir is so enthusiastic about the quality of our liturgical music that it has instituted a fund drive which will result in the purchase of a new organ for our sanctuary.

The Sunday School staff, under the very able and devoted leadership of Anna Karayan has been a major factor in making the Sunday morning experience truly positive, in particularly for our children. Promptness and regular attendance are essential and I am certain that once parents become convinced of the importance of learning the Christian faith, the Sunday School will grow. On the occasions when we have been blessed by the presence of a guest clergyman I have visited the children's assembly and presented a pertinent message.

Along these lines a major priority in the upcoming months will be the re-organization of an ACYOA juniors group. Though the numbers are limited, nevertheless the children need to be bonded in a positive and meaningful way through activities and responsibilities. After all they are our future. Our acolyte program is slowly taking shape. Though we have not yet reached the stage of meeting regularly, this will soon fall together as I realize that Sunday after services is the most realistic time to bring our young boys together. I am quite happy at the zeal that they demonstrate at the Altar. Two of our young girls have begun singing in the choir on a regular basis.

From July 2-8 I was on the staff of the Hye Camp in Wisconsin, which three of our children attended.

Fellowships following Sunday Service have become a very positive aspect of our community life. They serve as excellent opportunities for bringing people together in a warm and hospitable atmosphere. A negative aspect is that not enough people are volunteering to host the fellowships. Despite countless notices in the Paros, the response remains negative.

Our first Family Night held Friday evening, November 27 was a great success. Our New Years Eve Gala was also a major success. Those who organized these events are to be commended and I am thankful to the many parishioners, young and old who took part.

The auxiliary organizations continued to function according to their charters and by-laws although overall attendance and enthusiasm does not always seem constant. I have attempted to be present at all organizational meetings and activities. The organizations have as their ultimate goal the edification of their membership in the context of the faith community. During this year I plan to work more closely with each group to increase membership with the goal of instituting more meaningful, edifying and fulfilling activities. Special thanks are due to the following chairpersons for unselfishly giving of their leadership abilities: Mary Arslanian, Women's Guild; Sarkis Hamamjian, Social Club; Louise Demirjian, Church Choir; Russ Kashian, A.C.Y.O.A.

A word of thanks must go to all the organizations which raised funds for the operation of our Church, especially to the Women's Guild, under Mary Arslanian's lead, in making the Ramage Sale a success. Also thanks to John Davidian for running this year's Rug Sale and Haig Arpajian for chairing the Picnic. Those who volunteered demonstrated well their love for our Church.

My hope is that within the near future a new organization will be formed for our younger women. My hope is that they will relieve the Senior group of some of their responsibilities. Like the other organizations they will be asked to work on fund raising and will because of their makeup bring about new and creative programs. I would also emphasize the spiritual needs of this group, which will be developed through specially geared speakers and retreats.

Seniors Day. I am also considering setting aside one day a month for our seniors to come and enjoy the Cultural Hall. The hall could be set up so that they could play games and have refreshments. Maybe we could organize a warm meal or sandwiches. As the weather warms this may also include outings, etc.

One of the more positive aspects of my ministry has been the once a month Adult Christian Education Programs. The average attendance has been 10 and I believe it will go up as we continue. During Lent these sessions will take place weekly and in a different format, in the context of Lenten Services.

During the week, besides time spent preparing the Sunday bulletin, Paros and keeping up with office work, i.e. correspondence..., I have been making visitations to the homes and work places of our parishioners. Priority is always given to those who are hospitalized and in nursing homes. Up until now I have visited the homes of the majority of our members, but a number still remain.

A good deal of my time during the last few months has been spent helping our refugee brothers and sisters. In this context a special word of thanks must be given to Archie Andonian for his genuine Christian zeal in responding to the need to help Armenian refugees from Baku. I also appreciate the willingness of our volunteers who came forward to lend a helping hand. Dikran Auslanian, esq. and Ara Bagdasarian have been especially helpful to the cause. My thanks to the members of our community for always making the refugees feel welcome.

As part of my responsibilities I have organized the visiting clergy schedule and in the cases of baptisms or funerals I have made sure that a visiting priest was present. Though our situation is less than ideal, nevertheless the Diocese has been most cooperative in making clergy available to us.

Since the commencement of my ministry the following clergy have visited our Church and celebrated the Divine Liturgy:

Bishop Khajag Barsamian - June 28

Fr. Diran Papazian - July 19

Fr. Haigazoun Najarian - August 16, Feast of the Assumption

Fr. Garabed Kochakian - September 13, Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross
Fr. Vahan Hovhannessian - October 11
Fr. Garabed Kochakian - November 15
Archbishop Khajag Barsamian - December 20, Consecration of Icon in memory of Gregory Arpajian
Fr. Garen Gdanian - December 27

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism was administered to the following:

5 members of the Hovhannessian Family (from Baku) - July 19, Fr. Diran Papazian
Ira Ohanian - August 16, Fr. Haigazoun Najarian
William Ohanian - September 13, Fr. Garabed Kochakian
Valerie Gideon - October 10, Fr. Vahan Hovhannessian
Ziazan Davidian - December 26, Fr. Garen Gdanian

On Saturday, July 18 our Church rejoiced at the joining of Cindy Aurslanian and Todd Russell in the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony. Officiant, Fr. Diran Papazian,

The following members of our community have fallen asleep in Christ, for whom one or more parts of the Rite of Christian Burial was performed according to the tradition of the Armenian Church:

Lucy Nigosian - June 28
Martha Hacherian - August 13
Elmas Meketarian - September 8

May God grant eternal rest to their souls.

I have also made ecumenism a priority and have fully participated in the monthly meetings of the Hillcrest Ministerium. Through this I have come to know several area clergy and in the near future I hope to host a meeting at our Church facility. With Florence Goekjian, I represented our Church at the Eastern Churches' Traditions and Celebrations Seminar at Notre Dame College, October 16-17. Since then I have been attending the monthly meetings of the planning board. Responding to an invitation of our Primate I attended as an observer the Quadrenium Meetings of the National Council of the Churches of Christ, USA held in Cleveland, November 11-13. On this occasion Rev. Frs. Arten Ashjian and Garabed Kochakian visited our Church.

Together with Erica Ohanian and a number of our ACYOA members I represented our Church at the National ACYOA General Assembly and Sports Weekend at the Armenian Church of the Holy Martyrs, September 2-6.

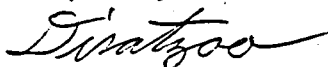

With Thelma Bagdasarian I represented our Church at the Association of Armenian Church Choirs of America Assembly at Holy Trinity Armenian Church in Cambridge, MA, October 29-November 1. On that occasion I was elected to the Central Council of the AACCA. This position entails 5 meetings during the calendar year at the Diocese and at the site of the upcoming Assembly.

I am very pleased with the work and cooperation of our Paros Staff. I truly appreciate the tireless dedication of Anita Arpajian and Mona Karoghlanian to the timely and well produced publication of the Paros. The Paros promises to grow from its news reporting format to one which offers informative and interesting articles, which will contribute to the growth of community. The Paros is a perfect medium by which we reach out to Armenians at large and offer a sense of unity. The Paros is something which I for one am proud of.

I appreciate the work and dedication of all the members of the Parish Council during the past six months. Each of the members has been a source of encouragement and help. I especially want to single out our chairperson, Florence Karoghlanian, who since my first day in Cleveland has been a constant source of support and encouragement. She truly takes her responsibility serious and fulfills it as a labor of love. Special thanks must also go to our treasurer Jack Hacherian, who constantly keeps the books right on track, also as a labor of love to his Church.

My closing thoughts are that we should be encouraged for what we are doing is good, God-pleasing and worthy of praise. None of us is perfect, but we are mandated by our Lord to be perfect, that is to work harder and harder for his praise. And I assure you that you will see the rewards. Thank you to all who have made my first six months such a pleasant and fulfilling experience.

Respectfully Submitted,

Deacon Norman Odabashian

PARISH COUNCIL CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

The Pastor and Parish Council are entrusted with the difficult task of keeping a parish viable and enriched with our religious and cultural traditions as well as financially stable.

As Chairman of the Parish Council, I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to all the members of the Parish Council and their families whose dedication and sacrifices, throughout the year, ensures the proper administration of such an important office and trust. The spirit of cooperation amongst the Parish Council members made the past year extremely productive. It was my pleasure to serve our beloved church and community. At this time I would like to salute my colleagues for a job well done: Archie Andonian, Haig Arpajian, Russell Arslanian, Ara Bagdasarian, Serop Demirjian and Jack Hacherian.

The Parish Council completed the renovation of the three additional bedrooms on the second floor of the Parish House. We carpeted, installed casablanca fans, venetian blinds, and drapes. The Pastor's quarters was refurbished.

The year 1992 was one of great achievement for our parish and community. Our prayers were answered in June. A new era has begun with the assignment of Deacon Norman Odabashian as Deacon in Charge. Under his capable leadership, the church family of St. Gregory of Narek will be well nourished religiously, culturally and socially.

We must reflect on our past, as we look to the future as we grow and witness our church's stability.

The Parish Council would like to encourage our parishoners to continue to support all organizational functions, and most importantly, let us all come to Church Services regularly and on time to receive complete spiritual fulfillment in order to enrich our lives.

We would be remiss if we did not express our gratitude to our beloved Primate, Archbishop Khajag Barsamian who truly understood the needs of our parish and acted upon it. His Grace assigned Deacon Norman to St. Gregory of Narek and we must stand behind him, work with him, encourage him as well as respect him. Let us all hold hands and work as one family for the glory of God.

Our church organizations are the fundamental necessities that sustains our church. Their success and stability are vital to our church preservation and future.

There is always the desperate need of volunteers, who are willing to give of themselves as well as their talents:

- o Our Church Choir deserves our deep appreciation for the quality of service and loyalty. Archdeacon Serop Demirjian, Deacon Haig Arpajian and Organist Anita Arpajian enhance our worship services every week as do our up-and-coming altar servers. Special thanks to our very capable Choir Director, Thelma Bagdasarian and well as all choir members.

- o The PAROS is a most vital link of communication between the Church and community. We must be proud of the professionalism that Co-Editors Anita Arpajian and Mona Karoghlanian bring with their efforts.
- o Our deep gratitude to Mrs. Anna Karayan and her dedicated staff for their devoted services to ensure that our Church School is a positive and meaningful experience for our children.
- o Mrs. Mary Arslanian and her Executive Committee members of our Women's Guild must be commended for their efforts.
- o We must express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Sarkis Hamanjian and the entire Executive Body of our Social Club for their continual support.
- o Our A.C.Y.O.A., headed by Mr. Russ Kashian and a host of ambitious Executive Committee members, was a source of great strength as they proved that our future does look bright.
- o Many thanks to Mrs. Anais Davidian, who lovingly prepares our "Mahs."
- o The A.G.B.U. continues to teach our children the Armenian language and culture.

As we enter 1993, let us remember to work together harmoniously as a united church family as we carry the torch of our beloved mother church into a new era with new opportunities and challenges.

The Assembly was presided over by His Grace, Bishop Khajag Barsamian, Primate. Martin Cholakian, (St. John Church, Southfield, MI), was elected Diocesan Assembly Chairman.

70 registered clergymen and delegates were represented, out of a total of 119. The Chairman declared a quorum was present.

Col. Victor Arzoomanian presented the ACEF report. The 1991 year was the best year since the inception of ACEF. The Bank of New York Management Fund was retained to manage a portion of its portfolio.

The Rector for St. Nersess Seminary, Deacon Hratch Tchilingirian presented a report on St. Neresess Seminary. Currently there are 22 parishes without priests. A program in process stresses the need for students. Recruitment through the parishes and parish priests will be a valuable tool in keeping our Diocese supplied with priests and qualified lay workers.

Zarvin Kasparian presented the Unity Committee report. The National Representative Assembly (NRA) reviewed the comments on the proposed draft By-Laws and is continuing negotiations with the Diocese for the preparation of the proposed By-laws. It was reported there has not been a Joint Unity Committee Meeting since the 89th Annual Assembly because the Prelacy has failed to request a meeting pending implementation and cooperation. The interpretation of the NRA Executive Council is that cooperation activities must come first, then further meetings on the draft By-laws will be considered. The Assembly reconfirmed its faith in the recommendation that unity is within the best efforts and effect to do what is best for this Assembly.

Council Member Dean Shahinian introduced a presentation entitled "Young Adult Involvement in the Parishes," with Rev. Fr. Mardiros Chevian, Diocesan Director of Youth Ministry. Various speakers expressed their views on young adults views, parents' views, and positive directions for the parishes.

The Diocesan Assembly has recognized the needs of our youth and young adults over the past several Assemblies, devoting greater time each Assembly for the purpose of strengthening our parishes. At this Assembly a proposal was presented to include a period of 60 - 90 minutes at the 1993 Diocesan Assembly, beginning on Friday afternoon for report and analysis on the involvement of the youth and young adults in the parish. This proposal was passed by the Assembly.

REVIEW OF 1992

Over the course of 1992 the Cleveland Chapter of the A.C.Y.O.A. has had a full and, hopefully, successful year. The success of the year can be attributed to a large measure to the spiritual and social leadership of Deacon Norman Odabashian. It has been his guidance that provided us with a meaningful year of social and spiritual events.

In reviewing the events of the past year, there is one area that needs official review: the finances of our organization. Accordingly, here is a summary of the basic transactions of the past year.

1992 Beginning Balance	$2,585.19
Donation to Church 1991	(1,413.22)
January 1992 Balance		$1,171.97
Bank Service Charges (net of interest received)	-(30.45)	$1,141.52
Palm Sunday Breakfast Income	628.00
Palm Sunday Breakfast Expense	(463.87)	$1,305.65
Sports Weekend Expenses (delegate expense and Volleyball)	(260.00)	$1,045.65
Salad Bar Friday Night Income	292.00
Salad Bar Friday Night Expense	(155.07)	$1,182.58
New Years Eve Income	2,715.00
New Years Eve Expense	(2,786.36)	$1,111.22
Christmas Party Expense	(81.41)	$1,029.81
Blossom Income	238.98
Blossom Expense	(228.00)
Summer Picnic Expense	(40.00)	$1,000.79
Coffee Hour	(16.16)
Bank Fee	(6.25)	$ 978.38
Donation to Church 1992	(478.38)	$ 500.00

In retrospect, there are a few financial observations that can be made about the year the A.C.Y.O.A. went through.

- 1-- we spent about $200.00 more than we brought in.
- 2-- a more efficiently run Palm Sunday Breakfast would have made up for this.
- 3-- New Years Eve lost about $60.00. Not bad for a risky endeavour and the first time in a few years.
- 4-- Salad Bar Friday Night appears to be a financial prospect for the future.

Enough about 1992.

Minutes

The A.C.Y.O.A. had a meeting Friday January 8, 1993.

1992 Annual Report

Paros

Paros was issued ten times in the last twelve months, adhering to the format of monthly publication with the exception of two issues where the months of June/July and August/September were combined.

Paros continues to develop and mature into a format aimed at today's Armenian Christian in the U.S. , focusing on traditional as well as contemporary issues of the Church. Given Paros reaches hundreds of people, most of whom are in our metropolitan area, as editors we strive to "touch" them, to foster a new or renewed interest in our church, to draw those removed back to the Church. We also strive to connect members of the community with one another by sharing news, giving people a conversation topic to get them started, hoping to bind our church family closer together. This has been Mari Jahn's charge and we believe "her" to be a successful concept.

We were pleased to have Diratzoo join us mid-year in his multifaceted role as editor-in-chief, proofreader and most importantly lead article writer. Diratzoo has taken over the Deacon's Desk (formerly Deacon's Bench) and has also contributed articles on such topics as Armenians of other denominations, coverage of local and regional religious conventions and seminars, our primate's visit, et. al.

A recent addition to the pages of Paros has been the Community News Page which made its debut in our December issue. This page is available to non-church Armenian organizations who have traditionally supported the mission of our church. It is under the sole editorship of Diratzoo who will ensure the material is consistent with the mission of the Church and accommodates our format. This concept, too, is intended to help bind our community. Our Parish Council and Diratzoo, committed to harmony within the community, deserve recognition for the inception of this concept.
