

SAINTS JOACHIM AND ANNA ARMENIAN APOSTOLIC CHURCH

WOMEN'S GUILD REPORT 1984

List of Officers:

Elizabeth Sahagian - Chairlady
Peggy Belcher - Vice-Chairlady
Lottie Mikaelian - Recording Secretary
Marge Lave - Treasurer
Alice Boyajian - Corresponding Secretary

Paid membership for 1984 numbered 16.

Some of the highlights of the year were:

- Hosting of Women Saints Day honoring Saint Anna, our Patron Saint
- Participation in Bible Study during Lent
- Parish Lenten Dinner
- Attending the Guild Meeting during the Diocesan Assembly held in Fair Lawn, New Jersey
 - A full written report of the day submitted to all members here
- Parish Potluck Dinner
- Led cooking preparations for Parish Picnic
- Baked and donated lasagna for Hye Camp
- Prepared an Armenian Buffet for Sports Weekend hosted by our ACYOA Seniors
- Also served the Sunday Brunch during same
- Held a mother/daughter one-day Retreat led by Fr. Garabed Kochakian in September
- Conducted another successful 2-day bazaar in November
- Prepared and served madagh for our First Church Anniversary
- Set up a rotating system for refreshment hostess after Soorp Badarak

Heartfelt thanks to all Guild members, non-members, Senior Citizens and both ACYOA groups for all their assistance during the past year.

Although we are small in number, the love we hold for our Church makes all tasks easier to bear in order to maintain an active and successful Parish.

Upcoming events for 1985 are: A Fashion Show entitled "Grandma's Trunk", and a Dinner-Dance, entitled "Puttin' on the Ritz", a joint venture of our Guild and Parish Council.

Respectfully Submitted,
Elizabeth Sahagian
