

ST. JAMES ARMENIAN CHURCH OF WESTCHESTER

ARMENIAN SCHOOL ANNUAL REPORT - 1989

The St. James Armenian School began the school session in September with an enthusiastic group.

The 1988-89 year had as principal of the School Anahid Chookhachian, who also substituted for teachers unable to attend. Our thanks for all her efforts for so many years on behalf of our Armenian School. Anahid has taken a sabbatical, though she substitutes when necessary.

This year (1989-90) we have 5 classes taught by our staff of competent teachers:

Eliz Bas	Nursery
Aida Pisani	Kindergarten
Margrit Hamparsoumian	1st grade
Rita Kurkjian	2nd through 5th grade
Rev. Fr. Karekin Kasparian	Senior class

This year we are very fortunate to have Mr. Karapet Tiratsuyan as our music teacher. He is teaching the pupils Armenian songs which they enjoy singing. Mr. Tiratsuyan has generously donated his services for this school year which we are grateful for.

The Executive Committee consists of:

Rev. Fr. Karekin Kasparian	President & Principal
Sally Guiragossian	Chairperson
Linda Varadian	Treasurer
Felicia Atamian, Noimik Poulatian, Angel Ebrahime and Ani Shahikian as Committee Members

Various functions during the year included 4 successful bake sales, hosted a Lenten dinner and held a great Halloween Dinner and Party.

Our celebrations during the year were limited as we did not have a closing hantes and the Christmas celebration was cancelled due to weather conditions.

In 1990 we plan to hold several bake sales, a Hopathon, host a Lenten dinner, a Halloween party and Christmas celebration.
