

ST. JAMES ARMENIAN CHURCH

ANNUAL REPORT OF CHURCH CHOIR - 1986

Total Membership: 21, including organist, deacons and choir director

Occasional singers: 9

Officers: Helen Kapikian, chairperson, Ellen Ishkanian, Vice-Chairperson;
Lucy Tepikian, Secretary/Recording Secretary; John Vakassian, Treasurer

Various functions include: monthly rehearsal of Badarak, learning new sharagans, choir party, and sponsorship of Lenten Supper. A bake sale and plate collection helped to defray our expenses.

In November, 1986, Helen Kapikian, chairperson of the choir, attended the Annual Choir Assembly held in Chicago, IL with the Pastor, Fr. Kasparian.

Members of the choir are planning to study the Khorenian Badarak. Voice training, under the direction of the choir master, Raffi Sevadjian, is held weekly and is a privilege for choir members.

The choir is grateful for the guidance and assistance of Fr. Kasparian, Raffi Sevadjian, Alfred Yeznaian, the deacons and altar servers and the choir members who so faithfully attend each Sunday.
