The Sept. 1990 - June 1991 school year consisted of 4 levels of classroom instruction: Pre-School, Level 2, Level 5 and Level 9. Our teaching staff from the previous year continued in their respective classes: Terry Bashian, Karen Sirabian, Richard Varadian, Elizabeth Guroian and Mark Derderian. A new teacher, Michael Zeytoonian, assisted with the Gr. 9 graduating class. The second Sunday of each month continued as Family Worship Sunday. This practice has proved very beneficial because it allows parents and their children to attend a shortened Badarak. It is particularly welcomed by teachers, who because they are in class each Sunday, are unable to attend the Divine Liturgy.

During Lent, Mrs. Arshalous Odabashian donated a lovely hand made quilt which was raffled off. The proceeds were sent as our contribution to the Diocese's annual Lenten Drive, which this year was used to aid the children of Karabagh. In June, we had 3 candidates for graduation: Paul Bashian, Lori Kasparian and John Pisani. Each student submitted an original essay on a topic approved by their teachers. All three of our students were graduated at ceremonies in church during which the essays were read.

On December 24th we held our annual evening of scripture readings, carol singing and tableaux of the manger scene by our children. This year the director was Yeretzgin Dawn Kasparian; the readers were Karen Sirabian and Ed Essayan.

We continue to be blessed with able, loving, conscientious teachers who week after week instruct our children in their Christian Armenian faith. Not only do they donate their time, but often also donate supplies and treats for the students.
