

Holy Trinity Armenian School

145 BRATTLE STREET
CAMBRIDGE, MASS. 02138

January 16, 1967

ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1966 OF THE HOLY TRINITY ARMENIAN SCHOOL

Number of Registered Students - 64

Teachers - 5

The Very Reverend Father Oshagan Minassian
Mrs. Nouné Hallacyan
Miss Araxi Aghajanian
Mrs. Helen Mouradjian
Mrs. Sally Martin (Teacher's Assistant)

School Hours - Saturday Mornings, 9:30 AM to 12 Noon, October through June

School Curriculum - Reading, writing, speaking, Armenian History, Armenian Folk Songs, Sharagans

School Operating Expenses - $2,000.00 annually

Tuition - None - The Holy Trinity Armenian School has never charged a tuition fee to its students and hopes that it may continue this policy. School expenses have always been met by the generous donations received at our Annual Armenian Christmas Dinner & Hantes;-- Also through the efforts of the Armenian School Parents and Members in holding a Cake Sale and from the proceeds of the Armenian School Table at the Annual Christmas Bazaar

Extra-Curricular Activities - The Executive Body decided, as an encouragement to the students, to plan parties and luncheon-outings each month:
Drumlin Farm Mass. Audubon Society Luncheon-outing
Christmas Party
Bowling preceded by lunch
Valentine Party
Prudential Center & Observation Tower Luncheon-outing
Easter Party
Museum of Science Luncheon-outing
School Closing Picnic

Children's Project - Missionary - Children contribute coins to a bank weekly for Christmas Gifts to be given to the orphans at the Karageusian and Kalfayan Orphanages in Istanbul, Turkey.

Mr. & Mrs. Club of Armenian School - Much needed interest for our School has been promoted from young parents by the organizing of a Mr. & Mrs. Club which plans Dinner Meetings and Socials.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard T. Mouradjian, Chairman
Holy Trinity Armenian School

