

Holy Trinity Armenian School

145 BRATTLE STREET
CAMBRIDGE, MASS. 02138

January 20, 1968

ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1967 OF THE HOLY TRINITY ARMENIAN SCHOOL

Number of Registered Students - 50

Teachers - 6 - Miss Araxi Aghajanian, Superintendent
Mrs. Nouné Hallacyan
Mrs. Loucine Sarkissian
Miss Artemis Karakashian
Mrs. Helen Mouradjian
Mrs. Sally Martin

School Hours - Saturday Mornings, 9:30 AM to 12 Noon, October through May

School Curriculum - Reading, writing, conversational, Armenian History,
Armenian Folk Songs, Sharagans

School Operating Expenses - $2,500.00 annually

Tuition - None - The Holy Trinity Armenian School has never charged a tuition fee to its students and hopes that it may continue this policy. School expenses have always been met by the generous donations received at our Annual Armenian Christmas Dinner and Hantes and the profit realized from our Summer-Closing Dinner and Hantes;-- Also through the efforts of the Armenian School Parents and Members in holding a Cake Sale and from the proceeds of the Armenian School Table at the Annual Christmas Bazaar.

Extra-Curricular Activities - The Executive Body has decided to give parties and luncheon-outings each month as an encouragement to the students. For example,--bowling, Christmas Party, Science Museum, Visit to Old Age Home, Valentine Party, Picnic

Children's Project - Missionary - Children are contributing to a bank weekly for Christmas gifts to be given to the orphans of the Karageusian and Kalfayan Orphanages in Istanbul, Turkey. We have been able to send a check for $50.00 for the last two years and hope to continue this practice.

Mr. & Mrs. Club of Armenian School - Much needed interest for our School has been promoted from young parents by the organizing of a Mr. & Mrs. Club which plans Dinner Meetings each month along with Socials.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard T. Mouradjian, Chairman
Holy Trinity Armenian School

