BAZAAR COMMITTEE REPORT

The 23rd annual Mt. Arrarat Festival and Bazaar took place on ~~May~~ 24th, 25th, and 26th of October, 1986. The Co-Chairpersons, Herbert Avakian and Theresa Harabedian along with seventeen members of the Bazaar Committee launched a verysuccessful event. A financial report will be presented by the Treasurer, Ralph Trapasso.

Needless to say, an undertaking as big as the church bazaar, can only be successful as its workers, and I am very proud to say, we had dedicated, stedfast and hardworking people working and striving for SUCCESS, AND THIS WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

My personal thank, and appreciation to:

Carmen Cartiglia, who was in charge of the Rug Department. Carmen not only set up the rug booth, but he drove to New York to pick up the rugs and then displayed them attractively in the church. Assisting him were severalparishioners who relieved him from time to time.

Eleanor Zysk who has for the past 23 years been in charge of the Pastry Booth. Eleanor takes it upon herself to call the ladies of the parish and ask for their baked apECIALties. Eleanor is a dedicated churchwoman and I thank her for helping make the Bazaar a success. In addition, Eleanor spends a day of baking in the church with her pastry committee.

Margaret Azarian, As chairperson of the Ladies Guild, Margaret organized and conducted with much sanity, the kitchen work, mainly cooking, preparing buying and keeping her cool throughout the entire week-end. Of course, this was not possible without the assistance and advice of Barbara Ketchian, Margaret's right arm ,as well as the ladies of the Board.

Gladys Jevarjian, who assisted me by driving to New York for the purchasing of the mideastern goods, as well as weighing and packaging them.

Keghan Stambolian, who for three days and three nights, manned the mid-eastern booth with success and love.

bazaar committee report

January 25, 1987

Connie Kasparian, for taking on the work of assembling the Ad book, Grace DeYoung for picking up the expense of the typist, and Lionel Ketchian for the complimentary printing of all the ad books.

Sonia Trapasso She did all the calling of radio stations, newspapers and advertising just to be sure everyone knew about our affair, and a job well done

Ralph Trapasso, treasurer of the bazaar. Ralph kept all the money in the right place and all the accounts accurate.

Jack Bousian - Jack is unofficially on the committee but his work cannot go unnoticed for its Jack's beautiful artwork and innovation that he so tastefully puts in the Mt. Ararat Festival flyers, and we all have become quite familiar with the mouse, the star boarder on Noah's Ark.

Harry Tashjian, who very skillfully handled the big raffle tickets, and made sure they were in the reach of everyone.

Linda Cartiglia, very capably took charge of the evening raffles. and made sure that this year's raffles were bigger and better.

Annie Khachian & Dr. Berdj Harabedian who for three days cashiered and very willingly and lovingly took in the cash.

Hermine Azarian, Helen Misakian, Felice Avakian along with their crafts group worked for several months to put together a beautiful and artistic crafts shop.

Peter & Agnes Kapusuzian who not only supervised and gathered items for the White Elephant Booth, but drove to New Jersey to pick up Mid-Eastern food for the kitchen and booth.

And of course, last but not least, our dear energetic pastor, Der Untzag who assisted with his wisdom, advice and work. He was always close by ready to help us in any way possible.

Many many thanks and appreciation to everyone who in any way helped with the success of our 23rd bazaar. We are all looking forward to a better and bigger affair next year. With much gratitude and love,

Theresa Harabedian
