

ACYOA 1981

ACYOA membership for 1981 consisted of 17 members. Executive officers for 1981 were Judy Bojajian, corresponding secretary, Carol Ashjian, recording secretary; Kikar Boyajian, treasurer; Zabel Ghazarian, vice chairman; and Chuck Ashjian, chairman, with Der Hayr as President and Margaret Boyajian and Rose Soghoian as advisors.

ACYOA activities during 1981 consisted of a Mardi Gras Dance which netted approximately $400.00, a beach dance and picnic earning $120.00, and a Halloween Party netting $40.00.

1981's donations consisted of $200.00 given to the Richmond Armenian School. $980.30 was transferred from the former No. 10 donations S. ACYOA account to the church. ~~There were~~ <sup>no</sup> ~~recor~~ <sup>donations</sup>

A midnight mass scheduled for Dec. 24, 1981 was not held this year because Der Hayr was called to Florida for a wedding. We hope you will all attend this year's service.

Beginning and ending balances for calendar year '81 were $562.44 and $875.00 respectively.

New officers for 1982 are Ted Baronian, corresponding secretary; Carol Ashjian, recording secretary; Raffi Borsamian, treasurer; John Kelejian, vice chairman; and Colin Wilkerson, chairman, with Der Hayr as President, Robert and Lily Thomas as new advisors and Margaret Boyajian and Rose Soghoian pledging their support for 1982.

ACYOA plans another Mardi Gras dance to be held on Saturday, Feb. 20. We hope you will give your support this year as you did last year.
