Dear Father Arsen:

We thank you for your letter dated May 24th 1983, and as requested we are enclosing copies of the questionnaire form for a divorced person desiring to be married in the Armenian Apostolic church required for the Primate's approval.

With regard to your suggestion for marriage and baptismal certificates to be perforated on the stub end, kindly be advised that at the present moment, we have a large supply of these certificates, and when our supply is nearly exhausted, we will consider your recommendation.

In addition we have requested the bookstore manager to investigate the matter of the Armenian alphabet placements that you had ordered.

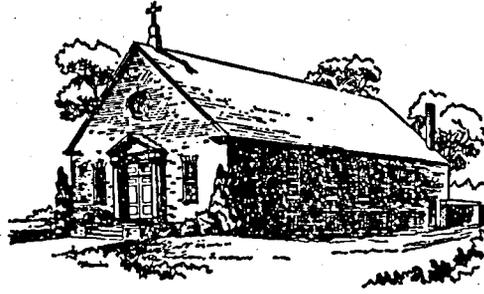

Yours respectfully,

Frank Avakian Stoneson

Dear Frank:

Sent ✓

We would like to have several copies of the questionnaire form for a divorced person desiring to be married in our church which requires Surpasans approval.

Also, is it possible that the marriage and baptismal certificates be perforated on the stub end so that they will not tear in removing them from the pamphlet.

Bookstore

Would you possibly check with the bookstore and see why the Armenian Alphabet placemats that we had ordered have not been sent as yet.

Sincerely,

Rev. Arsen Barsamian
